JETS DIRECTORS

"It all starts at the top."

That's a common phrase when talking about the success of any professional operation, and it particularly holds true with the steps taken to bring about the resurgence of the New York Jets.

Directors Leon Hess, Townsend B. Martin and Mrs. Helen Dillon showed their desire to return the club to the forefront of the National Football League in 1977 when they selected Walt Michaels to be their leader on the field and Jim Kensil to assume the full responsibility of administering the overall operation of the club.

In between naming Michaels and Kensil, the directors fought long and hard to secure early home dates. For the past decade, the Jets had been "orphans" of the NFL, never being allowed to play preseason or regular season games before its fans during the baseball season.

That all changed last year when the Jets opened the season at home for the first time since 1964 and played five games at Shea in September and October. For the remaining five years of their lease with the City at Shea, the Jets have been guaranteed at least four early season home games.

Hess and Martin have been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963. Mrs. Dillon, daughter of former club president Donald C. Lillis, assumed the post of vice president and secretary in 1968 upon the death of her father and has been an active member ever since.

LEON HESS, chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate affairs, is chairman and chief executive officer of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He is a respected member of the board of directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, vice president and treasurer, is an internationally known owner and breeder of thoroughbred horses and also an honored member of the Jockey Club. He is engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he is now a member of the board of directors.

MRS. HELEN DILLON, vice president, is a vivacious and enthusiastic fan who is in regular attendance at every Jets' game and function. She has become one of the most respected and knowledgeable woman executives in sports and is the first woman on the board of directors of the Pop Warner Football Association. Mrs. Dillon was honored in 1977 by that organization for her contributions to football. She resides in Cos Cob, Conn., with her husband, Dr. Thomas F. Dillon.

JIM KENSIL, President

Progress in pro football depends greatly on stability and direction. The Jets believe that in Jim Kensil they have the man at the top to provide these essential elements for success.

In his first two seasons with the Jets, Kensil has stressed communication within the organization and has outlined everyone's responsibilities.

"What we've tried to do is make sure everybody knows his specific job and understands it," said Kensil, who was named to the executive committee of the NFL Management Council this year.

Kensil had quite a few responsibilities as an administrator in the National Football League for 16 years. He had to move only several blocks from Park to Madison Avenue when he was named the Jets' president and chief operating officer on June 6, 1977.

For nine years prior to joining the Jets, Kensil had been executive director of the NFL, the man Pete Rozelle called "my offensive and defensive coordinator." For seven years before that, he was the NFL's public relations director.

Kensil succeeded Leon Hess, who had served as acting president of the Jets following the death of Phil Iselin in December, 1976. Hess now has the responsibilities of chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters.

While in the NFL office, Kensil made many innovative contributions to pro football. He was one of the chief architects of the new NFL scheduling format that was introduced last season.

Kensil began his sportswriting career as a student stringer at the University of Pennsylvania. After graduating in 1952, he went to work for the Associated Press in New York City on the sports and news desk before being drafted. He served in Germany and edited the Seventh Army newspaper.

He returned to the AP in 1954 and worked nearly two years in Columbus, Ohio, before coming back to the New York bureau where he covered general sports assignments, edited the teletypesetter Sports Wire and wrote a weekly column about sports on radio and television called "The Sports Dial." He left the AP in 1961 to join the NFL as public relations director.

Kensil was born Aug. 19, 1930, in Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Catherine, have four children and reside in Massapequa, Long Island. Their oldest son, Mike 23, is an administrative assistant for the Jets. They also have two other sons, Joe 21 and Danny 17, and a daughter, Mary Jo 19.

WALT MICHAELS, Head Coach

One of Walt Michaels' favorite sayings is what his father used to tell him after returning from a tough day at the coal mines in Swoyersville, Pa.

"Don't tell me if the sea was stormy...just tell me if you brought home the ship."

The sea was stormy for Michaels and the Jets in 1978. They faced the toughest schedule in the NFL based on the opponents' 1977 won-loss records. Half of the Jets' games were against playoff teams—Miami and New England twice each, Pittsburgh, Dallas, Denver and Philadelphia. Michaels had probably the youngest team in the history of the NFL with an average age of 24 (15 rookies) and an average NFL experience of 1.6 years.

In the fourth game of the season, quarterback Richard Todd broke his left collarbone and reinjured it when he returned after missing seven games. Defensive leader Greg Buttle suffered a sprained knee in the ninth game of the year and was placed on injured reserve.

Despite the Jets' inexperience and injuries, Michaels brought home the ship. New York stayed in playoff contention for 15 games, three minutes and seven seconds before losing in overtime at Cleveland. The Jets finished 8-8, their best record since 1974 and the most wins since 1969. They made the biggest improvement in the won-loss record of any team in the NFL, picking up five victories from last year and almost equaling the win total of the last three seasons combined (all 3-11).

Michaels was named AFC Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America and UPI. He was selected NFL Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly and several other publications.

The 49-year-old former Cleveland Brown great earned accolades from his own squad plus opposing coaches and players.

"Walt's the guy who gave this club organization," said offensive captain Randy Rasmussen, the only Jet left from the Super Bowl III squad. "He knows how to handle talent, and that's the difference in this team, the big difference from the Jets of the past several seasons."

After the Jets won at Miami to sweep both games from the Dolphins for the first time since 1969, Bob Griese said, "I don't know Walt Michaels personally, but I have much respect for him. He's put things together in New York. From what I could gather about Michaels as a player, he had much character and hustle, and believe me, he's transmitted it to that Jets' team."

Cleveland coach Sam Rutigliano echoed Griese's sentiments: "I think the Jets are an outgrowth of Walt Michaels. They know the kind of guy he is, the kind of guy who plays every down. He is involved with his team, and his players can only get better. They are so young, but they didn't fold when things got tough. And that is a credit to Walt Michaels."

Michaels gives the credit to his players. "I'm proud of the guys. My philosophy is not to ask people to do something I wouldn't do myself. As a result of being honest, they responded."

"We had a roller coaster type of year...a lot of highs and lows, but these kids never quit. They learned a lot of painful lessons last year. We had some adversities to get over and suffered some tough losses, but they bounced back time and time again."

In Michaels' first season as head coach two years ago, the Jets did not improve their record from 1976, but they regained respect throughout the league with their aggressive, hard-hitting style of play, particularly against some of the toughest teams in the NFL.

Michaels was rewarded with an extension of his contract before the 1978 season. "It's a simple matter of Walt doing the job," said club president Jim Kensil. "He has leadership quality. He's a hard worker. He's organized. And people believe in him. It's not just the players, it's the ownership."

The son of Polish immigrants, Michaels' football philosophy was molded in the Pennsylvania coal mine country. "My father died when he was 54 and he understood two things about football," Michaels said. "If you hit, you win. And if you won, you were successful."

Michaels did a lot of hitting and winning as a linebacker for the Cleveland Browns from 1952-61. He played on two NFL championship teams, five divisional winners and made the Pro Bowl four straight years from 1957-60.

He was drafted in the seventh round by Cleveland in 1951 out of Washington & Lee, where he played fullback, guard and linebacker while earning a B.A. in psychology and education. The Browns traded Michaels that same year to Green Bay for Dan Orlich and then reacquired him in 1952 for Richard Logan, Elmer Costa and Forrest Grigg. Michaels became a starting linebacker and missed only two games in his 10-year career with Cleveland.

Michaels' toughness was transplanted into the defenses he coached in the pro ranks. He began as defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders in 1962 and joined the Jets the following year in a similar position under Weeb Ewbank.

For 10 years Michaels masterminded the growth of the Jets' defense, which became one of the most respected in the AFL and then AFC. Under his tutelage, such players as Gerry Philbin, John Elliott, Verlon Biggs, Al Atkinson, Larry Grantham and Ralph Baker were developed.

In 1976 when Michaels returned to New York after three years (1973-75) as defensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles, he transformed the Jets' linebacking from the weakest spot on the squad to the strongest unit despite the fact three of the starters were rookies and only one, Greg Buttle, was a high draft choice.

When Michaels first joined the Jets' staff, he came out of retirement for the 1963 opener at Boston when the Jets' linebacking corps was decimated by injuries. He played the entire game after not having practiced for two years.

Michaels devoted all his energy to coaching after his one-game "comeback." In 1967 he took over the secondary and linebackers and helped mold the Jets' 1968 defense into the number-one unit in the AFL against the rush and in total defense. In 1970, the unit again ranked on top in total defense as well as first against the rush in the AFC.

Michaels' finest hour came in Super Bowl III. Although the Jets' defense received little of the glamour in the stunning 16-7 upset victory, Michaels' men played a significant role by holding Baltimore scoreless until less than four minutes remained. The often-maligned secondary of four free agents intercepted four Colt passes.

The game created an unusual situation for Walt's mother, Mary, who was chosen NFL mother of the year in 1966. On the Baltimore side was Walt's brother, Lou, a standout placekicker who played in the NFL from 1958-69 after earning All-America honors as a tackle at Kentucky.

Michaels remained with the Jets until 1973 when, with Charley Winner designated as the next head coach, he left to join the Eagles.

When Lou Holtz was selected as the Jets' head coach in 1976, Michaels was brought back as defensive coordinator. Holtz resigned after the 13th game that season, and Michaels became the eighth head coach in Jets' history in January, 1977.

Michaels is another in the line of Paul Brown products to become a head coach in the pros. Presently there are three others, Don Shula, Chuck Noll and Bill Walsh.

In 1977 Michaels was named to the Commonwealth of Virginia and Long Island (N.Y.) sports halls of fame. In 1978 he was inducted into the ODK honorary fraternity at Washington & Lee for outstanding achievement and also was honored by the New York Press Photographers Association for his cooperation. Earlier this year Michaels and his staff coached the North squad in the Senior Bowl at Mobile, Ala. Last February Michaels appeared on the TV quiz show, "Sports Challenge," with two of his players, Wesley Walker and Matt Robinson.

Michaels was born Oct. 16, 1929, in Swoyersville, Pa. He and his wife, Betty, have four children: Mary Ann 23; Walter, Jr., 20, a standout linebacker and captain at Kutztown (Pa.) State; Mark 15 and Paul 11. They make their home in West Islip, N.Y.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

STEVE Gutman

Secretary and Administrative Manager
3rd Season

Steve Gutman begins his third year as the Jets' administrative manager and secretary. In his role, he oversees the Jets' ticket, marketing and overall fiscal operations.

Prior to joining the Jets, Gutman was executive director of the Westchester County Guidance Center of New Rochelle. He has had extensive experience as a financial consultant in the areas of securities, research sales, underwriting, investment banking and management.

Gutman received both a B.S. in accounting and a master's in business administration from New York University.

He was born on Jan. 24, 1935, in New York City. Gutman and his wife, Carol, have two sons, Fred 22 and Rob 17, and a daughter, Lisa 21. They reside in New Rochelle, N.Y.

MIKE Hickey

Director of Player Personnel
3rd Season

The youngest director of player personnel in the NFL at 32, Mike Hickey is entering his third season with the Jets. He has the responsibilities of coordinating the Jets' college scouts and preparation for the draft.

In 1978 Hickey organized the Jets' draft for the first time. Ten of the club's 17 selections made the team, and two of them, Chris Ward and Bobby Jackson, were selected to the NFL all-rookie squad.

Hickey joined the Jets shortly after the draft in May, 1977, replacing director of scouting Mike Holovak. Prior to coming to New York, he was a personnel assistant for the Patriots under Bucko Kilroy for six years.

His father, Red Hickey, was head coach of the 49ers from 1959-63 and has been a scout with the Cowboys since 1965. Hickey played under three present and former NFL coaches: Dick Vermeil (high school in San Mateo, Calif.) plus John Madden and Don Coryell (both at San Diego State).

Hickey attended the University of Texas on a track scholarship and won the Southwest Conference discus championship in 1965. He transferred to San Diego State, where he was a reserve tight end before a knee injury ended his career.

Hickey was born on Nov. 18, 1946, in Santa Monica, Calif. He and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Kim 7 and Kelly 4.

JIM Royer

Pro Personnel Coordinator
2nd Season

Jim Royer was promoted to the newly created position of pro personnel coordinator last season after serving as a talent scout for five years. He is responsible for scouting the Jets' next opponent each week of the season and working with Walt Michaels in evaluating pro talent for the club's personnel needs. Royer also is involved in signing players.

From 1975-77, Royer scouted exclusively for the Jets. Prior to that, he was with the Galaxy combine in 1974 and the Washington Redskins in 1973.

A 1957 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy where he earned a degree in electrical engineering, Royer has been active in coaching or scouting since 1958 when he started as head coach of the U.S. Marine football team in Okinawa. He spent the next 10 years in the college ranks as an assistant coach at Navy (1959-60, 1964-65), Buffalo (1961), Tulane (1962-63) and Pittsburgh (1966-68).

Royer served as defensive coordinator of the Richmond Roadrunners in the Atlantic Coast League in 1969. He joined the New Orleans Saints midway through the 1970 season as offensive line coach and remained there through 1972.

He was born on Sept. 15, 1932, in Baltimore, Md.

JETS VETERANS

Ages as of Sept. 1, 1979

DAN Alexander

G 6-4 251

Louisiana State

D 8a, 1977 24 (6/17/55) 3

PRO: "Dan was one of our most improved linemen last year," Michaels said. "He has good strength, blocks well and will play when he's hurt. One of his biggest assets is his consistency. He missed only 10 assignments all last season. With a little more experience, there's no telling how good he could be."...started every game at right guard in 1978 when Jets set team rushing record...has made smooth adjustment to the offensive line after being drafted as a defensive tackle two years ago...very durable with good football intelligence...played in all 14 games as a rookie and started eight at right guard...took over a regular spot in third game of 1977, alternated with Darrell Austin toward the end of the season and won the starting job in 1978.

COLLEGE: Started two years in LSU defensive line with A.J. Duhe, now with Miami...had 10 QB sacks as a senior...played in Japan and Hula bowls.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in law enforcement and would like to work for FBI some day...nicknamed "Bayou"...spent off-season working as a jailer in sheriff's office near Baton Rouge...an avid hunter...twice all-city at Houston Lamar High...birthplace and hometown: Houston, Tex.

PRO CAREER STATS: Own fumbles recovered: 1 in 1978. Games played: 1977 (14), 1978 (16).

JEROME Barkum

TE 6-4 217

Jackson State

D 1a, 1972 29 (7/18/50) 8

PRO: "Jerome's the granddaddy of our receivers at age 29, and he still retains his speed and consistency at tight end," Michaels said. "He's durable, has great hands, runs good patterns and makes very few mental errors. Jerome is an effective blocker. He doesn't kill you but he gets the job done."...the second most experienced player on the Jets to Randy Rasmussen...for the second straight year he started every game at tight end and finished third on the squad in receptions (28 in 1978, 26 in 1977)...moved up to fifth among the Jets' career receiving leaders in both catches (196) and yardage (3,082)...caught at least one pass in each of the last nine games of 1978...grabbed two TDs in win at Buffalo, including the decisive score with 50 seconds remaining plus a circus catch of a pass deflected by a defender...played wide receiver in his first five seasons...switched to tight end during the 1977 preseason when Rich Caster moved out wide...led Jets in receiving in 1973 and made the Pro Bowl...topped the team again in 1974...signed late in his rookie year but still managed best seasonal average gain per catch in his career (19.0)...missed first 10 games of 1976 with a severely pulled hamstring.

COLLEGE: Caught 128 passes for 2,130 yards and 27 TDs in four-year career at Jackson State...had 10 TDs as a senior...was a teammate of Caster, now with Oilers...played in Senior Bowl and East-West Game...AP Little All-America...All-SWAC for two years.

PERSONAL: Wife Linda...daughter Laiysha 3...earned degree in health and physical education...nicknamed "Gee"...cousin of former Detroit Lion Lem Barney...brother Melvin played at Mississippi State...set his high school record with 30 rebounds in basketball game...enjoys working with kids...served as chairman of the March of Dimes Bike-a-Thon last year in New York City...birthplace and hometown: Gulfport, Miss.

Barkum is the most dangerous tight end in football. He has the speed of an outside receiver and the heart of a tight end. He'll block you, and he'll catch the ball over the middle.

—Dolphins' strong safety Tim Foley

KEVIN Bell

WR 5-10 180
Lamar (Tex.)
FA, 1978 24 (3/14/55) 2

PRO: Signed with Jets as a free agent on Oct. 19 last year...played in remaining nine games mostly on special teams...saw some action as a backup wide receiver...returned two kickoffs for 37 yards...also took a handoff from Bruce Harper and ran 29 yards with a kickoff at New England...one of the fastest players on the squad...ran the 100-yard dash in 9.3 at Lamar...usually the first man downfield on kick coverages...had nine solo tackles...originally drafted in 12th round in 1978 by San Diego but was released in training camp.

COLLEGE: A running back at Lamar...rushed for 515 yards as a senior when he also set a school record with a 93-yard kickoff return for a TD...made All-Southland Conference...ran track for four years.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in business management...worked for Dupont Chemical Co. in the off-season...birthplace and hometown: Beaumont, Tex.

GREG Buttle

LB 6-3 229
Penn State
D 3, 1976 25 (6/20/54) 4

PRO: "Greg was on his way to having an outstanding season before he got hurt," Michaels said. "He could develop into a team leader. He's a 'big play' man on defense with great football instincts."...was enjoying the best year of his career until he sprained his right knee at New England and was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 31...started eight of first nine games (missed Pittsburgh with rib injury)...plays left outside linebacker...always near the ball...blocked a lateral vs. St. Louis and recovered it to set up TD...made spectacular one-handed interception of screen pass at Baltimore where he had 12 solo tackles and sacked Bill Troup for a 15-yard loss...returned interception 29 yards in opening win vs. Miami...contributed 71 tackles (42 solos)...one of the hardest hitters on the team...very quick reactions...has scored two TDs in his career, a 44-yard interception return in 1977 and a 23-yard fumble return in 1976, both vs. New England at Shea...made every NFL all-rookie team three years ago when he led the Jets in tackles...chosen Jets' rookie of the year by New York writers.

COLLEGE: "Buttle is as fine a linebacker as any prospect produced by this school, including Jack Ham, Dave Robinson, Doug Allen and Jim Laslavic," said Penn State coach Joe Paterno...consensus All-America...played in last Chicago College All-Star Game...also appeared in Sugar, Cotton, Orange, Japan and Hula bowls...was defensive captain as a senior when he was named New Jersey college athlete of the year.

PERSONAL: Single...earned degree in arts and sciences...articulate...does a lot of speaking engagements...did public service television spot for United Way in 1977...aided Special Olympics program...enjoys paddleball, fishing, scuba diving and rowing...sang in barbershop quartet at Penn State...makes year-round home in Pt. Lookout, L.I....father was FBI agent...brother Toby played football at Navy...all-state standout at Mainland Regional High...birthplace: Atlantic City, N.J....hometown: Linwood, N.J.

I think everyone on the team knows now we can win. Before last season it was, 'I hope we can win.' Now it's like it was when I was in college. We'd walk off the field and people would forget about the game that night. That's what you have to do if you want to keep winning.—Greg Buttle

SCOTT Dierking

RB 5-10 215
Purdue
D 4, 1977 24 (5/24/55) 3

PRO: "Scott's biggest improvement last year was in his blocking. He was responsible for many of Kevin Long's long runs," Michaels said. "He also had the most improvement among the running backs in the coaches' grading. Scott missed only four blocks all season and fumbled just twice."...finished runnerup in rushing on the team for the second straight season...more than doubled his 1977 rushing total with 681 yards on 170 carries for a 4.0 avg. and four TDs...combined with Long for the most yards in a season (1,635) by any pair of running backs in Jets' history...was regular halfback for 15 games...missed second Miami game with a sprained ankle...a bruising runner with a low center of gravity ...keeps his feet peddling for extra yardage...earned a game ball for his best effort of the season vs. St. Louis when he rushed for 94 yards and scored the first two running TDs of his career...also had outstanding days in Jets' wins at Denver (89 yards, 1 TD) and Baltimore at Shea (79 yards, 1 TD)...already ranks seventh among Jets' all-time rushing leaders with 996 yards...a sure-handed receiver who dropped only one ball all year...was fifth on the Jets with 19 catches...had career-high five receptions at Cleveland ...his diving grab on fourth down was a key play in winning TD drive at Buffalo...was switched from fullback to halfback midway through his rookie year when he started the last five games...appeared almost exclusively on special teams for first seven games...did not carry the ball until the eighth contest of the year...rushed for a career high of 107 yards vs. Pittsburgh that also was the best effort by a Jet in 1977...build and style of running are similar to those of former Jet Mike Adamle...first running back selected by Jets in 1977 draft.

COLLEGE: Second leading career rusher at Purdue behind Otis Armstrong...gained 2,863 yards, including 1,000 as a senior ...only runner besides Armstrong to lead Boilermakers in rushing three straight years...chosen second team All-America by AP and Football News...first team All-Big Ten, team MVP and co-captain as a senior...led Purdue to upset of No.1 ranked Michigan with 162 yards rushing...played in East-West Game plus Hula and Japan bowls.

Blocking is just making up your mind you're going to do it. It's not a question of lifting more weights or hitting your head against a tree. After my first year, the coaches told me they needed a half-back who could block. I made up my mind before I came to camp last year that I'd have a good blocking. It was the weakest part of my game; but now I'm concentrating on it, and my blocking is coming without hesitation. Before if I wasn't carrying the ball, I didn't feel like I was in the game. Now if I can spring Kevin (Long) loose, I feel great. — Scott Dierking

JIM
Earley
FB 6-1 230

Michigan State

D 7b, 1978 23 (1/23/56) 2

PRO: Sprained his knee vs. Pittsburgh and was placed on injured reserve (Oct. 4)...was active for first five games but did not play until fourth contest at Washington...appeared on special teams...showed promise in preseason...gained 78 yards on 21 carries in first three games...a big, strong inside runner who blocks well and has good quickness for his size.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Michigan State where he gained 1,259 yards rushing, including 668 as a senior when he averaged 6.1 yards per carry...weighed 250 pounds as a freshman but shed 27 of them during sophomore year...broke into starting lineup midway through junior year when he replaced injured Levi Jackson vs. Minnesota and ran for career high of 138 yards...played in Challenge Bowl (Big 10 vs. Pac. 10).

PERSONAL: Single...majored in urban and metropolitan studies...spent off-season taking courses at Michigan State...would like to work in community development some day...played on same junior high team as Jets' teammate Chris Ward...went to Dunbar High and competed against Ward in track and football...birthplace and hometown: Dayton, Ohio.

JOE Fields

C 6-2 245
Widener
D 14, 1975 25 (11/14/53) 5

PRO: "Joe was our most improved lineman last year," Michaels said. "He graded the highest among the offensive linemen. Joe's an intelligent, hard worker who's done a good job after coming out of a little school like Widener."...has played in every game (the last 40 as a starter) since being picked in the 14th round four years ago...finished fourth among special teams leaders in 1978...has worked very hard to increase his strength...has one of the fastest snaps in the NFL (between .7 and .8 seconds to the punter)...very accurate on punt and placement snaps...has good quickness and fine attitude...can also play guard.

COLLEGE: Never missed a play at Widener (Chester, Pa.) despite contused shoulder and sprained ankle as a senior...all-conference in 1974...called blocking assignments for offensive line...played with Billy "White Shoes" Johnson...gained 25 pounds between his junior and senior years because he wanted to be pro center...originally enrolled at Rutgers-Camden, which didn't have a football team, but was persuaded to transfer by Widener coach Bill Manlove.

PERSONAL: Wife Kay...is brother-in-law of former Jet Garry Puetz, now with Tampa Bay...has B.S. in accounting...sells real estate in off-season in Woodbury Heights, N.J....also does quite a few speaking engagements...started three years at Gloucester (N.J.) Catholic High...birthplace: Woodbury, N.J....hometown: Deptford, N.J.

PRO CAREER STATS: Own fumbles recovered: 1 in 1977. Games played: 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16).

I don't even think about a bad snap. I remember Joe snapped one over my head in practice and he quit snapping. It just got him so mad and his face got so red. It was the first and only time I'd ever seen him snap it over anyone's head.

— Jets' punter Chuck Ramsey

DERRICK Gaffney

WR 6-1 175
Florida
D 8a, 1978 24 (5/24/55) 2

PRO: "Derrick was a pleasant surprise last year," Michaels said. "I said he'd be a 'sleeper' when we drafted him in the eighth round. He has great hands and moves. He runs very good patterns. Derrick took advantage of the double coverage on Wesley Walker to get open throughout the season."...started all 16 games and finished second to Walker with 38 receptions for 691 yards and an impressive 18.2 average...broke Walker's record for most catches (35) by a Jets' rookie wide receiver...only two rookie receivers had more catches than Gaffney in 1978—John Jefferson of San Diego and James Lofton of Green Bay, who both were selected to Pro Bowl...his development during training camp was one reason Jets were able to trade Rich Caster...caught at least one pass in 15 games, including the first 10 of the season...streak was broken at Philadelphia...a clutch receiver...12 of his receptions resulted in successful third down conversions...earned game ball in win at Buffalo with his best effort of the year...caught five passes for 108 yards, including a 36-yard TD and a 32-yarder on third down that was the vital play in Jets' winning TD drive late in the game...had four catches in each of the wins vs. Miami and also grabbed four at Cleveland...longest reception was 50 yards vs. Baltimore at Shea...other TD receptions came vs. Buffalo at Shea and at Denver...does not possess blazing speed but is very elusive after making a catch.

COLLEGE: Played in the shadow of his close friend Wes Chandler, who was the third player chosen in the 1978 draft (New Orleans)...while a freshman at Florida, helped recruit Chandler in high school...was redshirted as a sophomore...broke into starting lineup midway through senior year when Chandler was moved to running back...tied NCAA record and broke Southeastern Conference mark with 99-yard reception vs. Rice...finished second to Chandler in receiving both as a junior (16, 279 yards, 17.4 avg., 0 TD) and as a senior (14, 319, 22.8, 2).

PERSONAL: Single...majored in public relations...studied at University of Florida in off-season...nicknamed "All Well" from Richard Pryor record...has same birthdate as teammate Scott Dierking...comes from a family of fine athletes...brother Warren was a starting cornerback at Florida last year...brother Johnny is a sophomore receiver for the Gators...brother Don was a standout quarterback at Florida from 1973-75...another Gaffney, Reginald, plays baseball at Florida A&M...three-sport standout at Raines High in his birthplace and hometown of Jacksonville, Fla.... Raines also produced Houston's Ken Burrough and Philadelphia's Harold Carmichael, who both worked out with Gaffney when he was growing up and taught him how to run pass routes...belongs to Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

I don't think I've gone against a rookie receiver who reads defenses so well. Gaffney knows where to go.

CLARK Gaines

RB 6-1 194
Wake Forest
FA, 1976 25 (2/1/54) 4

PRO: "When you talk about a team player, you start with Clark Gaines," Michaels said. "He was hurt by injuries and lost his spot to Kevin Long, but still he was one of Kevin's biggest boosters. Clark played a lot on special teams and did a tremendous job. He can play both running back spots and has proved his value to the team by being able to run, block and catch the ball."...one of the toughest competitors on the team who's not afraid to play when hurt...was bothered by an assortment of injuries but still played in 16 games and started vs. New England at Shea...suffered a sprained foot in intrasquad game in July...missed first two pre-season contests and was nagged by the injury throughout the season...finished third among special teams leaders...made important recovery of onside kick at Miami to preserve win...was fourth on the team in rushing with 154 yards on 44 carries, 3.5 avg. and two TDs, both vs. Seattle when he had his best day of the year (56 yards on 7 att.)...his 33-yard run vs. Seahawks was the longest of 1978 for the Jets...ranks fifth among Jets' career rushing leaders with 1,473 yards...led team in rushing and receiving in 1976 and 1977, the only Jet to accomplish that feat twice...finished third in the NFL in receiving two years ago with 55 catches, the second best ever by a Jet back (Matt Snell had 56 in 1964) and the most by a Jet since George Sauer caught 66 in 1968...was a Horatio Alger story in 1976 when he became the first rookie ever selected as Jets' MVP after signing as a free agent and barely making the club...led all NFL rookie runners with 724 yards despite not starting until the seventh game...was the top special teams player before he gained starting berth...set a Jets' season record with four 100-yard rushing games, including a career high of 119 yards at Buffalo...also topped the 100-yard mark against Baltimore (102), Tampa Bay (103) and Washington (109)...ran for 103 yards at New Orleans in 1977...made every NFL all-rookie team and was selected AFC Offensive Rookie of the Year by NFL Players Association...started every game but the last one in 1977...serves as assistant player representative to Burgess Owens...his great desire and second-effort make up for lack of outstanding speed.

COLLEGE: Might have been overlooked in draft because of injuries...gained 1,258 yards on 336 carries (3.7 avg.) in two years at Wake Forest...was All-Atlantic Coast Conference and captain as a senior...outstanding junior college runner at Lees-McRae (Banner Elk, N.C.)...rushed for 1,105 yards as a sophomore, second in the nation...named NJCAA All-America.

PERSONAL: Wife Katherine...daughter Leslie Kia 3...has B.S. in physical education...earlier this year received award along with Pittsburgh's John Stallworth from United Negro Fund for outstanding performance in the field of professional athletics...held two jobs in college while supporting his wife and daughter...was one of 13 blacks to volunteer to integrate the previously all-white Elbert County High...birthplace and hometown: Elberton, Ga.

D 9a, 1978 23 (9/2/55) 2

PRO: Played in 14 games as a rookie primarily on special teams and as an extra back in the prevent defense...appeared in first three regular season games before being waived...re-signed a week later as a free agent...broke up two pass plays in win at Denver...missed Dallas game with ankle injury...a hard hitter...made 22 tackles (14 solos) in 1978...was drafted in ninth round with pick obtained from Buffalo in Lou Piccone trade.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at cornerback...had seven interceptions in his career...also returned punts and kickoffs...played against Wesley Walker in 1975.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in telecommunications...studied at University of Oregon in off-season...formed company called "Omega Brothers Productions" that entertains at disco dances...set Washington high school indoor long jump record (23'8") at Chief Sealth High in his hometown of Seattle...birthplace: Atlanta.

BRUCE Harper

RB-KR 5-8 182

Kutztown (Pa.) State

FA, 1977 24 (6/20/55) 3

PRO: "Bruce is our all-purpose everything," Michaels said. "He did all we wanted him to do last year. The Cleveland game was the best example of his ability to contribute in so many ways. You can't ask a man his size to be able to take the full-time grind. I don't want him to be a hero like some of the other small players we've had here. I don't want to punish him on every play. We want him around for at least seven or eight years."...in two years since signing as a free agent, has become one of the most feared kick returners in the league...led the NFL in all-purpose yardage (rushing, receiving, returns) last season with 2,157, beating Walter Payton (1,875) and Joe Washington (1,869)...set two NFL season records in 1978...most combined punt and kickoff return yardage (1,658), breaking Chuck Latourette's 1968 mark of 1,582...most kickoff returns (55), bettering the record of 47 held by two players...has set seven Jets' records...most punt return yards in a season (425 in 1977) and career (803)...most kickoff return yards in a game (180 at N.E., 1978) and season (1,280 in 1978, the third most in NFL history)...most kickoff returns in a game (8 at N.E., 1978), season (55 in 1978) and career (97)...was selected first team All-NFL return specialist by New York Daily News...finished second to Rick Upchurch in AFC Pro Bowl balloting...helped Jets lead the NFL in punt return average (12.5)...his 12.60 average was third in the NFL behind Upchurch (13.7) and Keith Moody (12.63)...his 82-yard punt return for TD vs. Buffalo at Shea was second longest in Jets' history and tied Moody for longest in NFL last season...earned a game ball for his effort vs. Bills...was third on the Jets in rushing with 303 yards on 58 carries...his 5.2 average per rush was best on team...had outstanding day at Cleveland when he caught two TD passes plus another for 44 yards and led Jets with 49 yards rushing...also had 115 yards on returns...had 282 yards in all-purpose offense in preseason win over Giants...regular season career high was 265 at N.E. this past season...led AFC in all-purpose yardage (1,867) as a rookie...was fourth in the AFC in kickoff return average (24.6) and sixth in AFC in punt returns (12.5) in 1977 when he was named pro rookie of the year by N.J. Sportswriters Association...is used primarily as a substitute at halfback...started two games as a rookie when he also saw some action at wide receiver.

COLLEGE: Was recommended to Jets by Walt Michaels' son Walter, Jr., who is senior captain at Kutztown (Pa.) State this year...was honorable mention Little All-America in 1976 when he was first back in school's history to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,132 in 10 games)...three-year rushing total of 2,169 yards...no player from Kutztown has ever been drafted...only other Kutztown player in pros, Doug Dennison of Cowboys, also was a free agent.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in social welfare...attended Bergen County (N.J.) CC in off-season...also worked at a bank...did radio message for American Heart Association...football and track standout at Dwight Morrow High in his birthplace in hometown of Englewood, N.J....was high school friend of John Travolta...supported by large cheering section of family and friends at every home game.

JOHN Hennessy

LB-DE 6-3 236
Michigan
D 10, 1977 24 (3/12/55) 3

PRO: "John is a smart football player who was able to make the adjustment from a down defensive lineman to linebacker last season," Michaels said. "He's durable and makes very few mistakes. Right now he's better against the run, but his pass defense should improve. John's best football is ahead of him."...moved from right defensive end to left inside linebacker in 1978 when the Jets switched to 3-4 defense...started every game and tied for seventh on the team in tackles with 122 (64 solos)...in preseason was slated for "rover" position as both a defensive end and linebacker...wound up playing mostly linebacker during regular season but occasionally did get down in stance in line...had a QB sack at Philadelphia...was a surprise as a rookie after being drafted in 10th round...played in every game and started twice at defensive end...appeared primarily on special teams.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman...started at defensive tackle as a senior when Michigan won Big Ten title and played in Rose Bowl...played in Orange Bowl as a junior.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in business administration...studied at Palmer College of Chiropractics in Davenport, Iowa, during off-season...all-city standout at Gordon Tech in Chicago...birthplace and hometown: Chicago, Ill.

PRO CAREER STATS: QB sacks: 2 (1-1977, 1-1978). Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1977. Games played: 1977 (14), 1978 (16).

MIKE Hennigan

LB 6-2 215
Tennessee Tech
FA, 1976 27 (10/24/51) 7

PRO: "Mike is a very intelligent linebacker and great special teams player," Michaels said. "Until he got hurt, he did a good job in his first year as a regular."...earned starting right inside linebacker spot in 1978 after leading Jets in special teams statistics in 1977...topped the team in tackles for most of the season before suffering severely pulled hamstring vs. New England at Shea...injury sidelined him for remaining four games...started 12 games and tied for seventh in tackles with 122 (52 solos)...tied for third on the team with three interceptions...picked off first interception of his career in opening win vs. Miami and returned it 16 yards...his 53-yard interception runback at Baltimore was the Jets' longest of the season...also had interception at Denver...contributed to a QB sack at Washington...played in all 14 games and started twice in 1977 following off-season shoulder operation...before 1978, played primarily on special teams and as reserve linebacker...Jets claimed him on waivers following Detroit's final cut in 1976 but he failed physical...signed again on Sept. 14 as free agent...played in 12 of remaining 13 games and finished third among Jets' special teams leaders...missed most of 1975 season with knee injury that required surgery...was first of three picks by Detroit in fourth round of 1973 draft.

COLLEGE: Played two years at Parsons College in Iowa before transferring to Tennessee Tech...was all-conference and honorable mention Little All-America in 1972 when his team won Ohio Valley Conference title...played in the American Bowl.

PERSONAL: Wife Cindy...has B.S. in health and physical education...participated in Punt, Pass & Kick program...birthplace: Davenport, Iowa...hometown: Washington, Iowa.

PRO CAREER STATS: Interceptions (all in 1978): 3, 76 yards, 25.3 avg., 53 LG, 0 TD. QB sacks: ½ in 1978. Kickoff returns (Det): 2, 35 yards, 17.5 avg., 0 TD. Games played: 1973 (Det-8), 1974 (Det-14), 1975 (Det-4), 1976 (JETS-12), 1977 (JETS-14), 1978 (JETS-12).

MARK Iwanowski

TE 6-4 230
Pennsylvania
FA, 1978 23 (9/8/55) 2

PRO: Signed with the Jets as free agent on Nov. 15 last season and played in remaining five games on special teams...originally signed as free agent with Oakland but was released in next to last cut during preseason.

COLLEGE: Played tight end and wide receiver at Pennsylvania where he earned All-Ivy and All-East honors as a senior in 1976...did not play football during his first year out of Penn...studied at California Institute of Technology.

PERSONAL: Single...earned degree in mechanical engineering...spent off-season at UCLA studying for a master's degree in engineering...three-sport standout at Kingsway Regional High in Swedesboro, N.J....won state discus championship...birthplace: Hazleton, Pa....hometown: Wilmington, Del....PRONOUNCED: EYE-van-OW-skee.

BOBBY Jackson

CB 5-9 175
Florida State
D 6a, 1978 22 (12/23/56) 2

PRO: "Bobby is an enthusiastic, emotional player who, pound for pound, hits as hard as any cornerback in the league," Michaels said. "He did a good job in his first year absorbing the various coverages and recognizing pro offenses."...named to NFL all-rookie first team by the Pro Football Writers of America, UPI and Pro Football Weekly...tied Burgess Owens for the team lead with five interceptions, the most by a Jets' rookie since 1960...also topped the team with 13 passes defensed...started every game at left cornerback...an aggressive hitter with very quick feet...finished 10th on the squad with 96 tackles (66 solos)...returned five interceptions for 26 yards, including 13-yarder off Bob Griese at Miami...recovered a fumble and picked off interception vs. Buffalo at Shea...other interceptions came against St. Louis, Philadelphia and Baltimore at Shea...youngest player on the squad in 1978...showed great improvement...was beaten twice for TDs by Harold Jackson at New England...held Jackson to only one catch in rematch...one of the fastest defensive backs on the team...ran 40 in 4.42...also one of the best leapers...Jets drafted him with sixth round pick obtained from Buffalo for Billy Newsome.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman...set Florida State career record with 10 interceptions...returned 30 punts for 10.5 average...honorable mention All-America as senior when team won Tangerine Bowl.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in criminology...studied at Florida State in off-season...nicknamed "Bojack"...credits jumping ability to hitching rides on the back of garbage trucks while growing up in Albany, Ga., also his birthplace...tried out for junior high football team but played in the band because coach said he was too small...went on to earn all-state honors as a cornerback and wide receiver at Albany High.

BOBBY Jones

WR 5-11 180

None

FA, 1978 24 (7/12/55) 2

PRO: "Bobby is still green, but he learned a lot last season," Michaels said. "He did a good job on special teams. He's a hard worker who has pretty good hands and the speed necessary to become a wide receiver."...only the fifth player in Jets' history to make the squad without college playing experience...Jones, Bruce Stephens and Joe Pellegrini were the only rookie free agents on the Jets' opening day roster vs. Miami...played in every game primarily on special teams and occasionally as a backup wide receiver...finished ninth in special teams statistics...had 15 tackles (10 solos) for the season...set up a TD vs. Seattle with a fumble recovery on punt coverage...caught one pass for 18 yards at New England.

PERSONAL: Wife Cheryl...a true Cinderella story...was a 160-pound quarterback and defensive back at Brookfield (Ohio) High...enrolled at Millikin (Decatur, Ill.) but left after two weeks because he was homesick...later attended Youngstown State...got a job as a mechanic at Toby Gibson's Auto Body Shop in Brookfield...played for semipro team, Sharon (Pa.) Old Express, in 1975 and part of 1976 before team folded...got a tryout with the Jets because a friend, Bill Kushner (who wrote the book "My Son Joe" with Joe Namath's mother), knew Jets' scout Carroll Huntress...paid his own way to camp in July, 1977, and impressed everyone with his speed...Jets couldn't sign him because his college class wouldn't graduate until 1978...drove home in his 1970 Thunderbird and got a job working on schoolbus engines...

tried out again in May, 1978, ran the 40 in 4.55 and signed as a free agent ...nephew of Tom Jones, former player with Cubs and Indians...is third cousin of former Dodger great Carl Furillo... birthplace: Sharon, Pa...hometown: Brookfield, Ohio.

Last year during training camp, the Jets' coaches tried to stir up competition in the receiving drills and lined up the players by colleges. When they asked Jones, a former mechanic who didn't play college ball, what they should call him, he replied, "'The Texaco Man, your man with the star.' "

LARRY Keller

LB 6-2 225

Houston

W, 1976 25 (10/2/53) 4

PRO: "Larry did a very good job replacing Greg Buttle last season," Michaels said. "He's a tough competitor who will play when he's hurt. He's good on the blitz and on special teams. Larry has a knack of coming up with big plays."...appeared in 16 games and started the last eight at left outside linebacker after Buttle injured his knee...finished ninth on the team with 110 tackles (54 solos) and was seventh among special teams leaders...tied for team lead in fumble recoveries for third straight season...had one each vs. Philadelphia and Cleveland...also had two QB sacks (at New England, at Miami)...picked off an interception vs. Dallas ...played very well in his first start at Denver despite a knee injury ...has appeared in every game for the Jets since being acquired on waivers from San Diego following final cut of 1976 preseason ...started eight games at RLB for injured Bob Martin and one at LLB for Buttle in 1977...blocked a punt in win vs. Patriots...started three times at three different linebacker spots as a rookie when he led Jets' in special teams statistics...originally drafted ninth by San Diego in 1975 but didn't sign...played with Hamilton of CFL and Memphis of WFL before joining Chargers in 1976.

COLLEGE: Played stand-up defensive end at Houston...member of Cougars' 1973 and 1974 Astro Bluebonnet Bowl teams... played in 1975 Hula Bowl.

PERSONAL: Married Diane Brown during off-season...has B.S. in health and physical education...coordinates Bible study sessions for Jets during season...has worked as a volunteer fireman in his hometown of Orange, Tex....birthplace: San Benito, Tex.

PRO CAREER STATS: Opp. fumbles recovered: 7 (3-1976, 2-1977, 2-1978). Interceptions: 3, 71 yards, 23.7 avg., 0 TD (1-31 in 1976, 1-36 in 1977, 1-4 in 1978). QB sacks: 4½ (½-1976, 2-1977, 2-1978). Blocked punts: 3 (1-1976, 1-1977, 1-1978). Rushing: 1-26 in 1977. Games played: 1976 (14), 1977 (14) 1978 (16).

Larry Keller should be nicknamed "Buffalo Blitzler." In 1976 he earned game balls in both victories over the Bills when he recovered two fumbles in the first win and blocked a punt, intercepted a pass and caused a fumble in the second game (all three plays led to scores). In 1977 he broke up two passes and had 11 tackles after replacing injured Greg Buttle during the Jets' win at Buffalo. He recovered two fumbles and picked off an interception in the rematch at Shea. Last season he blocked a punt in the Jets' 45-14 win.

D 6, 1977 25 (10/15/53) 3

PRO: "Joe is our best pass rusher," Michaels said. "He was double-teamed most of last season. One of his biggest assets is his great second effort. He plays all over the field. His pursuit is excellent."...has developed into one of the best pass rushers in the NFL in only two seasons...selected second team All-AFC by UPI in 1978...led Jets for second straight year with eight quarterback sacks...had streak of at least one sack in 10 consecutive games (last six of 1977 and first four of 1978)...string ended vs. Pittsburgh...best effort in 1978 was at Washington (2½ sacks) ...personally drew five holding penalties against Bills' offensive line at Buffalo and still managed a QB sack plus a tackle for an eight-yard loss...finished third on team in tackles with 139 (62 solos)...blocked two PATs (Miami at Shea, at New England) and one field goal at Cleveland, where he also recovered a fumble... earned Pentax Jets' player of the week award in win vs. Baltimore at Shea when he had 1½ sacks and 12 tackles...started every game at right defensive end in three-man front...played defensive tackle as a rookie when Jets used 4-3 alignment...did not start until ninth game of 1977 season but still had more sacks (eight) than any rookie in the league, including three vs. Buffalo at Shea...blocked a field goal at Baltimore...has great strength and quickness...Jets drafted him in sixth round right before Eagles, who had planned to pick him next.

COLLEGE: Played middle guard at Temple where he was both All-East and AP honorable mention All-America twice...was scouted by Walt Michaels when Owls almost upset Penn State in Klecko's junior year...was two-time ECAC club heavyweight boxing champion ...lost only once in 35 amateur bouts.

PERSONAL: Wife Debbie...son Michael 3...majored in history ...nicknamed "Killer"...works as truck broker near Philadelphia during off-season...was one of four NFL players selected to go on NFL-USO Dept. of Defense tour in March...visited U.S. military outposts in South Korea, Japan, the Philippines and other bases in the Far East...passed up college for two years to drive a truck after graduating from St. James High in Chester, Pa., where he played football only as a senior...also was a drag racer...was discovered playing sandlot ball by Temple's equipment man, John DiGregorio, who persuaded coach Wayne Hardin to offer Klecko a scholarship...once sparred with Joe Frazier..."One of his punches that missed was enough to convince me not to become a professional boxer," Klecko said...birthplace and hometown: Chester, Pa.

PRO CAREER STATS: QB sacks: 16 (8-1977, 8-1978). Blocked PATs: 2 in 1978. Blocked FGs: 2 (1-1977, 1-1978). Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1978. Games played: 1977 (13), 1978 (16).

Joe is a throwback. He reminds me of the guys I met when I broke in in the early sixties. He's a competitor; he puts the game ahead of everything else. Joe will be the Alex Karras of the 1980s. He is built along the same lines as Karras. He's not real tall so he has a low center of gravity. Joe is bigger and stronger than Alex and he's probably quicker, too. I've seen Joe come off the ball and be around a blocker before he even has time to set up. With his desire, there's no telling how good Joe can be. — Dave Herman, standout offensive lineman for the Jets from 1964-73 who knocked heads with Karras several times.

KEVIN Long

FB 6-1 205

South Carolina

D 7c, 1977 24 (1/20/55) 3

PRO: "Kevin had an unbelievable season in 1978," Michaels said. "He rose from the ranks of a 'nobody' to become our top rusher. A lot of it was just a matter of his gaining maturity. He adjusted to the pro style of running after being in a veer at South Carolina, and he developed durability after having injuries in his rookie year. Kevin is an instinctive runner. He picked his holes better and his blocking improved. He and Scott Dierking complemented each other very well. Kevin made very few mistakes. He fumbled only four times in 214 carries (third highest in Jets' history) and had only two penalties all season."...at the beginning of the season was called a "nobody" by a Buffalo writer...by the end of the year was one of the biggest "somebodies" in Jets' record book...his rushing total of 954 yards was the second highest ever by a Jet and ninth in AFC...his 10 TDs on the ground tied for second best in club annals...entire team had only six rushing TDs in 1977...tied a Jets' record with three TDs vs. Buffalo (also 91 yards rushing)...earned a game ball for his performance...also won game ball at Denver when he ran for 85 yards, with 54 of them coming in Jets' final drive late in game that used up most of the time remaining...started all 16 games at fullback and was Jets' leading rusher in nine of them...top effort was 136 yards at Baltimore, which was eighth best game in Jets' history...ran for 107 yards vs. Colts at Shea...earned Pentax Jets' player of the game award vs. Seattle with 80 yards rushing and four receptions...scored one TD in four straight games...was fourth on club with 26 receptions, including six vs. New England at Shea which tied Wesley Walker for the Jets' single-game high of 1978...finished third behind Walker and Matt Robinson in team MVP voting...was selected most popular Jet by CYO of New York...combined with Dierking for the most yards by any pair of running backs in Jets' history (1,635)...already ranks sixth among Jets' career rushing leaders with 1,124 yards...took over starting spot when Clark Gaines was injured in preseason and never lost it...played in 14 games and started four as a rookie when he was bothered by a foot injury...was switched from fullback to halfback in 1977 and returned to original position in 1978...was third player chosen in seventh round of 1977 draft by Jets, who obtained pick in Carl Garrett trade with Oakland in 1976.

COLLEGE: Was first 1,000-yard rusher in South Carolina history in 1975 when he gained 1,133 in 190 carries (6.0 avg.)...joined Clarence Williams (who later passed 1,000-yard mark in 1975) as seventh tandem in NCAA history from same school to rush for 1,000 yards in one season...honorable mention All-America, first team All-South Independent and All-South Carolina in 1975...finished third among Gamecocks' all-time rushing leaders with 2,372 yards...played in Tangerine Bowl as a junior.

PERSONAL: Wife Frankie...daughter, Latifah, was born this past winter...majored in health and physical education...studied at University of South Carolina in off-season...has worked with retarded children and orphans...did a radio spot for the Salvation Army...was a guard at Clinton High in his birthplace and hometown of Clinton, S.C.

BOB Martin

LB 6-1 214

Nebraska

D 6, 1976 25 (11/14/53) 4

PRO: "Bob is our most consistent linebacker," Michaels said. "He makes very few mistakes. His biggest asset is his pass defense. He really helps our deep backs."...started all 16 games at right outside linebacker after missing most of 1977 with a shoulder separation...has good speed and quickness...earned game ball and Pentax Jets' player of the week award at Miami when he picked off a Bob Griese pass and returned it 26 yards to set up TD...also had an interception vs. Seattle...had 2½ QB sacks...the first one at Baltimore on a blind side blitz caused Bert Jones to fumble and forced him out of the game with a reinjured shoulder...had 1½ sacks vs. Colts at Shea...finished sixth on club with 129 tackles (60 solos) ...played in only five games in 1977 when he suffered a shoulder injury at Miami and was placed on injured reserve...started 13 games as a rookie when he was second on team in tackles and had two interceptions.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at defensive end and captain as a senior...selected first team All-America in 1975 by Football News...was chosen second team All-America and All-Big Eight by AP and UPI...played in Japan, Cotton, Sugar and Fiesta bowls.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in business administration ...worked at a bank in Lincoln, Neb., during off-season...enjoys collecting antiques and restoring old furniture...named Nebraska's High School Athlete of the Year in 1972 at David City High where he was a running back and linebacker and also earned four letters in basketball and track...birthplace and hometown: David City, Neb.

PRO CAREER STATS: Interceptions: 5, 47 yards, 9.4 avg., 26 LG, 0 TD (2-15 in 1976, 1-0 in 1977, 2-32 in 1978). QB sacks: 2½ in 1978. Games played: 1976 (13), 1977 (5), 1978 (16).

Bob Martin utilizes his football talent in a scientific manner. He just can't stand in there and say, 'Give me a 270-pound tackle, I'll kill him.' He can't shed 270-pound tackles all day. Some guys punch out there and others box. I put him in the boxing category. He has to do things differently because of his size.

MARK Merrill

LB 6-4 237
Minnesota
D 2, 1978 24 (5/5/55) 2

PRO: "Last season was a big learning year for Mark because he went from a stand-up defensive end in college to a pro inside linebacker," Michaels said. "He improved as the season went on, but he still needs work. Mark has a lot of athletic ability."...played in all 16 games and started last four at right inside linebacker in place of injured Mike Hennigan...appeared mostly on special teams and as backup LB...had 14 tackles vs. Colts at Shea and 16 vs. Dallas...finished 11th on team with 80 tackles (38 solos) and was 10th in special teams stats...has excellent size, speed and body flexibility...fourth linebacker and 31st player selected in 1978 draft...first of three LBs from Minnesota picked in second round.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter...honorable mention All-America (The Sporting News) and second team All-Big Ten (AP) as a senior...played in East-West Shrine Game, Hall of Fame Classic and Challenge Bowl (Pac 10 vs. Big 10)...originally a tight end...dropped out of school after freshman year...came back a year later 20 pounds heavier and found home at defensive end...returned two blocked punts for TDs as a junior.

PERSONAL: Single...earned degree in business...has Black Belt in judo...was Minnesota state judo champion in 1976 and 1977...father, also a Black Belt, began teaching him nine years ago...four-sport standout at Kellogg High in his hometown of St. Paul, Minn....birthplace: Minneapolis, Minn.

JOE
Pellegrini

DT 6-2 270

Idaho

W, 1978 23 (8/9/56) 2

PRO: "Joe is a hard-working player who could improve," Michaels said. "He needs experience, but he did come up with a couple of big plays last season."...acquired on waivers from Oakland on Aug. 19...originally signed as free agent with Raiders...Pellegrini, Bobby Jones and Bruce Stephens were the only rookie free agents on the Jets' opening day roster vs. Miami...played in nine games in 1978 mostly as backup nose guard in three-man line...started finale vs. Dallas...after being used sparingly in just five of the first 12 games, was thrust into action at Miami when Abdul Salaam was injured in the first half...responded by recovering a fumble that set up Jets' last TD...also had a QB sack...finished year with 25 tackles (15 solos).

COLLEGE: All-conference standout at Idaho...had 16 QB sacks as a senior...attracted attention of Jets' scouts at East-West Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Wife Virginia...has degree in physical education...worked as substitute teacher in Boise during off-season...all-state at Hoquiam (Wash.) High where he also won state shot put championship...enjoys hunting and fishing...birthplace: Aberdeen, Wash....hometown: Hoquiam, Wash.

LAWRENCE Pillers

DE 6-3 247

Alcorn State

D 11, 1976 26 (11/4/52) 4

PRO: "Lawrence is a very determined football player who wants to excel," Michaels said. "He has good pursuit and is great against the run. He was bothered by a series of nagging injuries last year. Lawrence is strong, steady and still developing."... started 16 games at left defensive end despite having problems with a bruised hand and later a broken thumb...finished second on squad with 153 tackles (77 solos)...tied for team lead with two fumble recoveries at Baltimore and vs. New England at Shea... earned Pentax Jets' player of the week award vs. St. Louis when he had 1½ QB sacks on consecutive plays in the fourth quarter... also had sack vs. Baltimore at Shea...led the team in tackles, had four QB sacks and blocked two PATs in 1977 when he started 13 games...a broken bone in his left hand forced him to miss only game (at Miami) of his pro career...played with special cast after that...one of the fastest linemen on the team (4.85 in 40)...originally drafted as linebacker because he weighed 225 at Alcorn State...surprised everyone when he came to training camp as rookie at 250 and still kept his speed...was switched to LDE and started 13 games in 1976.

COLLEGE: First team AP small college All-America at defensive end...helped Alcorn win Black National Championship in 1974...as a senior, led defense that topped nation against the run by allowing only 159 yards in 10 games...all-conference three times...had 12 blocked punts and 15 fumble recoveries in his career.

PERSONAL: Wife Carrie...daughter LaCuri 4...majored in physical education...studied at Alcorn State during off-season...owns disco club called "Piece of the Apple"...has six riding horses...one of 13 children...birthplace and hometown: Hazlehurst, Miss.

MARVIN Powell

T 6-5 271

Southern California

D 1, 1977 24 (8/30/55) 3

PRO: "Marvin played much better last season than he did as a rookie," Michaels said. "I think the friendly competition between Marvin and Chris Ward helped each of them perform better. Marvin is the strongest player on the squad. He has great potential, and I think he's just beginning to find himself."...his blocking was one of the reasons that Jets set a team rushing record in 1978...started 14 games at right tackle...sprained ankle at Baltimore...missed games vs. St. Louis and Denver...an overpowering blocker with the ability to become all-pro...progress as a rookie was hampered by knee injuries...played in 11 games and started 10 in 1977...named to NFL all-rookie team by UPI...called "best athlete in whole draft" two years ago by Al Davis...was fourth player picked in first round.

COLLEGE: First team All-America as a senior (UPI, The Sporting News, Football News)...Coaches' first team All-America as a junior...three-time first team All-Pac 8 and twice All-West Coast...started on 1974 national championship team as a sophomore...played in three Rose Bowls and one Liberty Bowl...switched from tight end to tackle as freshman.

PERSONAL: Nicknamed "Boomer"...he and Chris Ward were dubbed "Bookends" by Walt Michaels after Jets drafted Ward...majored in speech and political science...studied at Southern Cal during off-season...a conservative, disciplined person who was brought up in military atmosphere...father was a career officer who fought in Normandy invasion at age 15 and also in Korea and Vietnam...football All-America, basketball and track standout at 71st High in his hometown of Fayetteville, N.C....idols are Muhammed Ali and William F. PRO CAREER STATS: Own fumbles recovered: 1 in 1978. Games played: 1977 (11), 1978 (14).

BOB Raba

TE-LB 6-1 222
Maryland
FA, 1977 24 (4/23/55) 3

PRO: One of the best examples on the Jets of hard work paying off...does not have great size or speed but makes up for that with hustle and determination...broke his jaw at Washington last year and was placed on injured reserve (Sept. 27)...that same day he started lifting weights to get ready for next season...the kind of player who will do anything to contribute to the team...learned how to make long snap on his own...one of the top special teamers on the squad...was one of last free agents invited to rookie camp in 1977...offered a contract after first workout...not only made club but played in all 14 games...finished second among special teams leaders...probably will be tried at linebacker for the first time this season.

COLLEGE: Lettered as tight end on four bowl teams at Maryland — Peach, Liberty, Gator and Cotton...named to ACC all-academic team...selected as Terps' "unsung hero," the same award won by Jets' assistant coach Joe Gardi, who recruited Raba in high school and coached him for a year at Maryland...played his junior year with broken hand...was teammate of Jets' safety Ken Schroy.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in business administration...studied at Maryland during off-season...did not get a lot of attention from pro teams at Maryland...his close friend received a lot of questionnaires from pro clubs and gave extras to Raba, who filled in his name hoping that someone would show interest...quiet and religious...three-sport standout at Walt Whitman High in his hometown of Bethesda, Md....birthplace: Washington, D.C....PRO-NOUNCED: RAY-bah.

PRO CAREER STATS: Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1977. Kickoff returns (all in 1977): 4, 64 yards, 16.0 avg., 20 LG, 0 TD. Games played: 1977 (14), 1978 (4).

CHUCK Ramsey

P 6-2 183
Wake Forest
FA, 1977 27 (2/24/52) 3

PRO: Last year became the first Jet punter since 1970 to average more than 40 yards a kick...his 40.1 avg. on 74 punts ranked fifth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL...booted the longest punt of the season in the AFC and the second best in Jets' history, a 79-yarder at Baltimore that was the longest in the NFL since New Orleans' Tom McNeill had an 81-yarder in 1969...later in 1978, Mike Wood of St. Louis bettered Ramsey's mark with an 81-yard punt vs. Giants...was among top punters in NFL for most of the year before slumping in last four games...averaged 40 yards or better in nine of the first 12 games...best effort was a 47.3 avg. for seven punts (none over 52 yards) at Denver...averaged 44.0 on seven kicks at Buffalo...boomed a 62-yarder at New England...has to work on hang time...net avg. was only 29.9 in 1978...lost 15 pounds during off-season after disappointing year in 1977 when he was the league's seventh worst punter with a 37.1 avg...signed as a free agent after Jets waived Duane Carrell and was regular punter for last 12 games...won a "punt-off" tryout against two other free agents...originally sixth round draft choice of New England in 1974 but signed with Chicago of WFL...averaged 39.9 on 71 punts and kicked three field goals...when Chicago breached his contract, he signed with Patriots but was released after three weeks...also failed in tryout with Packers in 1975...sat out 1976 season and was signed by Detroit in 1977...was waived after first two preseason games...a former college quarterback who sometimes plays opposition's QB during Jets' practices.

COLLEGE: A good all-around athlete at Wake Forest...was a QB, punter and placekicker plus a high jumper on track team...led NCAA with 44.8 avg. in 1973 and was named to several All-America teams...set 10 school kicking records...played in five postseason games: Blue-Gray, North-South, East-West, Hula Bowl and Coaches' All-America...won two games in his career on last-second field goals.

PERSONAL: Wife Mary Jane was head women's tennis coach at Tennessee...daughter Courtney Anne 2...majored in broadcasting-speech communication...during off-season teaches tennis, models and is part-owner of Independent Research and Development Corporation...also working on getting pilot's license...close friend of Seattle punter Herman Weaver...teamed with QB Pat Ryan as doubles entry in tennis tourney on Long Island last year...did a radio message for the Salvation Army in 1978...won local Punt, Pass & Kick competition four times...was All-Eastern Tennessee in basketball at West High in his hometown of Knoxville...birthplace: Rock Hill, S.C.

Kickers are part of the team, yet we're different. The other guys are out there butting their heads, and it's got to be demoralizing a little bit to look over and see two kickers not having to do any of that stuff. I can understand how they feel. A kicker's world is just different from a regular football player's world, but we earn it when we're backed up in our own end zone or trying a last-second field goal. — Chuck Ramsey

RANDY Rasmussen

G 6-2 255

Kearney (Neb.) State

D 12, 1967 34 (5/10/45) 13

PRO: "Randy is our offensive captain and leader," Michaels said. "He's one of the hardest workers on the squad. He's a steadying influence on the entire team and is particularly helpful with the younger players."...started every game for the eighth straight season...has played in 168 regular season games, tying Don Maynard for third in Jets' history behind Winston Hill (195) and Larry Grantham (173)...has had 124 consecutive starts (second only to Hill's 174) since missing 1970 game vs. Miami at Shea with sprained ankle...only other game he missed in his career was at Miami in 1969...selected first team All-NFL by New York Daily News last year...has been offensive captain since 1977 when he was only offensive lineman ever selected Jets' MVP by teammates...one of the most consistent players on the squad...rarely makes a mistake...usually grades near the top among Jets' offensive linemen...played alongside rookie tackle Chris Ward last year and helped the No. 1 draft pick progress...Jets set team rushing record behind the blocking of Rasmussen and rest of offensive line...the last player left from the Super Bowl III team...played a key role in that historic win with his blocking against Billy Ray Smith...started at right guard in both the AFL championship and Super Bowl III...has been at left guard ever since...one of the best pulling guards in Jets' history...was drafted in 12th round in 1967...was so unsure of making team that he signed a teaching contract in Omaha...not only made the Jets but became a starter as a rookie.

COLLEGE: All-NAIA for two years at Kearney State...three-time all-conference...played offensive tackle...also threw shot put for track squad.

PERSONAL: Wife LaWana...daughter Ericka Leigh 6...son, Anders Lee, was born last May 10 on Rasmussen's birthday...has a degree in mathematics...serves as Jets' fund-raising representative for a Ronald McDonald House (where families of children stricken with cancer, leukemia and other diseases can stay while their children undergo treatment) to be built near Memorial Sloan-Kettering Hospital in New York City...also has done work for American Heart Association...grew up on a farm...makes year-round home in Elmsford, N.Y....in great demand as off-season banquet speaker...birthplace: St. Paul, Neb....hometown: Elba, Neb....PRONOUNCED: RAZZ-mus-sen.

PRO CAREER STATS: Jets' fumbles recovered: 9 (3-1970, 2-1972, 1-1973, 1-1974, 1-1975, 1-1976). Recovered Jets' fumble for TD in 1972. Games played: 1967 (14), 1968 (14), 1969 (13), 1970 (13), 1971 (14), 1972 (14), 1973 (14), 1974 (14), 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16).

There's the same blend of age and youth on this year's Jets' team as there was on the 1968 championship club. The Super Bowl team was older, but when this squad gets that same kind of experience, I think it will be even better. — Randy Rasmussen

LARRY Riley

GREGG Robinson

DE-DT 6-6 255

Dartmouth

D 6b, 1978 23 (8/16/56) 2

PRO: "Gregg is a hard worker who needs to develop upper body strength," Michaels said. "He's quick off the ball, but right now he needs experience."... played in all 16 games last season primarily on special teams and as reserve defensive lineman...saw his most action at Cleveland when he replaced injured Lawrence Pillers...put good pressure on QB and narrowly missed a couple of sacks...only player from Ivy League chosen in 1978 draft.

COLLEGE: Was first team Coaches' All-Ivy in 1976 and 1977 ...All-East (UPI, ECAC) and All-New England as a senior...first Dartmouth player since 1970 to appear in East-West Shrine Game...three-year starter for Big Green...was teammate of Reggie Williams, starting linebacker for Bengals.

PERSONAL: Single...earned degree in anthropology...nicknamed "Rosie"...lives year-round in East Elmhurst, N.Y....worked hard with weights at Jets' training center during off-season...hobby is restoring antique cars...family owns five Model A Fords...football and track captain at Minnechaug Regional High in his hometown of Wilbraham, Mass....selected scholar-athlete by Football Hall of Fame...participated in Punt, Pass & Kick competition...birthplace: Palmer, Mass.

MATT Robinson

QB 6-2 196

Georgia

D 9, 1977 24 (6/28/55) 3

PRO: "Both Matt and Richard Todd are capable of being starters and winners in the NFL," Michaels said. "Matt had the ability to come up with the big play when we needed it the most last year. He didn't get rattled when we were behind. He's a good scrambler who's capable of picking out his receivers while he's running. Both Matt and Richard are good students of the game, and having them both only creates a pleasant problem."...led Jets to six victories in his 11 starts after replacing injured Richard Todd twice in 1978...combined with Wesley Walker for TDs of 77, 75, 56, 48, 38 and 33 yards...threw for over 200 yards in four games...took over for Todd in fourth quarter at Washington and started next seven games...passed for 192 yards in first start vs. Pittsburgh...went the next four games (70 passes) without an interception...won game ball at Baltimore after first 200-yard day of his career (8 of 13, 215 yards, 2 TDs, 77-yard pass to Walker)...led Jets to 31-28 victory at Denver after Broncos held 28-7 lead in first half...threw for 216 yards and two TDs, including 75-yard game-winner to Walker in fourth quarter...did not start vs. New England at Shea but replaced Todd in fourth quarter...completed 7 of 10 for 121 yards and 56-yard TD to Walker...started next game at Miami and went 17 of 26 for 257 yards in Jet win...had most productive day in overtime loss at Cleveland (22-44, 289 yards, 3 TDs)...first Jet quarterback to pass for over 2,000 yards (2,002) since Joe Namath had 2,286 in 1975...had 13 TD passes...threw at least one TD in each of the last five games...finished second to Walker in club MVP balloting...was holder in all 16 games last year...already ranks sixth among Jets' all-time leading passers with 2,312 yards...played in just four games as a rookie...replaced Marty Domres twice against Seattle and at Baltimore where he passed for 198 yards and one TD...got his first NFL start against Pittsburgh the following week...has a very strong arm...showed outstanding leadership throughout last season.

COLLEGE: Noted for his passing at Georgia, where he split QB duties with Ray Goff in veer offense...led Southeastern Conference in passing as a sophomore with 1,317 yards and set Bulldog record for average gain per completion (21.9)...played less as a junior...saw more action as backup QB for Sugar Bowl team as a senior...was nicknamed "Third and Long" because he often came in on third down situations...career totals: 125 of 247, 2,295 yards, 20 int., 17 TDs...played in Tangerine Bowl as soph and Cotton Bowl as junior.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in business education...played Santa Claus in Jets' party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...appeared on TV quiz show "Sports Challenge" with Walt Michaels and Wesley Walker last February...football and baseball captain at North Springs High in his hometown of Atlanta, where he lives during the off-season...participated in Punt, Pass & Kick program...birthplace: Farmington, Mich.

All my life I've always felt blessed...like someone was taking care of me. When I walk onto the field I feel a rush of excitement, but it's not a nervous sensation. Throwing a football is a natural thing to me. The quarterback is either the hero or the bum. You've got to be able to deal with the pressure or get out of the job.

JOHN Roman

T 6-4 251

Idaho State

FA, 1976 27 (8/31/52) 4

PRO: "John plays well at either tackle spot when called upon," Michaels said. "He's one of the strongest players on the team. He bench presses 500 pounds. John did a good job filling in for Marvin Powell at right tackle last season after playing primarily at left tackle before then."...appeared in 16 games last year, mostly as a reserve offensive tackle and special teamer...started two games at RT for Powell vs. St. Louis and at Denver...Jets had their third best rushing day of the season (202 yards) vs. Broncos...played in nine games in 1977 and started twice at LT...originally signed with Jets after first two games in 1976...started next two contests and played in 11 altogether...was drafted in 13th round by Baltimore in 1975 but decided to join the Philadelphia Bell of WFL...saw spot duty there at same time Jets' assistant Joe Gardi was on the Bell staff...signed with Colts in 1976 but was cut following preseason...can play guard if needed.

COLLEGE: Two-time All-Big Sky Conference...was captain for two years and honorable mention All-America as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in physical education and special education...worked in New York City for Merrill Lynch during off-season...three-sport standout at Holy Spirit High in his hometown of Absecon, N.J....participated in Punt, Pass & Kick program...birthplace: Ventnor, N.J.

PRO (NFL) CAREER STATS: Games played: 1976 (11), 1977 (9), 1978 (16).

PAT Ryan

QB 6-3 205

Tennessee

D 11, 1978 23 (9/16/55) 2

PRO: "Pat showed tremendous potential last preseason and will get a good look this year," Michaels said. "He has football intelligence, a strong arm and a willingness to work. In the games that Pat did play, he displayed good command of the huddle and field leadership. All he needs is more game experience."...played in just two regular season games as a rookie vs. Buffalo at Shea and at New England...completed 9 of 13 for 106 yards (2 int.) and engineered two scoring drives vs. Patriots...threw one incomple-tion vs. Bills...had an extremely impressive preseason, beginning with the Jets-Giants rookie scrimmage (7-9-111-1-1)...was the outstanding player in the intrasquad game in July (7-10-119-2 TDs)...appeared in two preseason games vs. Atlanta and Phila-delphia and connected on 9 of 12 for 83 yards, 2 int., 1 TD.

COLLEGE: His role at Tennessee was similar to Matt Robin-son's at Georgia...team switched offense to running attack...came in primarily on passing situations...suffered a series of injuries that hampered his career...played behind Condredge Holloway as a sophomore...was slated to start season opener as a junior but broke collarbone in scrimmage and was redshirted...returned in 1976 but played very little...finally got chance to start midway through 1977 and finished season with 27 of 65 for 355 yards, 4 int., 1 TD...alternated with Jimmy Streater, who was mainly a run-ning QB.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in business administration...a good tennis player...paired with punter Chuck Ramsey as dou-bles team in a tournament on Long Island last year...three-sport standout at Putnam City High in his hometown of Oklahoma City, Okla....was MVP in Oklahoma-Texas High School All-Star Game ...won local Punt, Pass & Kick competition in his birthplace, Hutchinson, Kan.

ABDUL Salaam

DT 6-3 260

Kent State

D 7b, 1976 26 (2/12/53) 4

PRO: "Abdul played the toughest position in the three-man line," Michaels said. "He graded very well against the run. He's an enthusiastic, 100 per cent football player. The big thing is that he enjoys playing. If I told him to play safety, he'd enjoy it."...switched from tackle to nose guard when the Jets changed from a 4-3 defense in 1977 to 3-4 last season...started in 15 games...missed first game of his career in finale vs. Dallas with knee sprain...finished fourth on team with 137 tackles (61 solos)...one of his best efforts came vs. Colts at Shea when he recovered a fumble and had a QB sack...also had sack vs. Seattle...played in all 14 games and started 13 at RDT two years ago when he had career high of four QB sacks...appeared in 14 games as a rookie, starting three at LDT and one at RDE...was drafted with possibility of playing LB but added a solid 25 pounds by training camp...has great pursuit and second effort.

COLLEGE: Led Kent State's "Carat Gold" defense while playing both nose guard and linebacker...four-year letterman...was first team All-Mid American Conference three straight seasons...named "Mr. Defense" in MAC in 1974 when he earned honorable mention All-America honors...played in Tangerine Bowl.

PERSONAL: Wife Debbie...son Larry 5...majored in business...attended Kent State during off-season...changed named from Larry Faulk in 1977...new name means "Soldier of Peace"...very quiet and introspective off the field but one of the most vocal players on it...a constant companion of fellow lineman Lawrence Pillers...has spent time with children at foster home on Long Island...three-sport star at Woodward High in his hometown of Cincinnati, Ohio...birthplace: New Brockton, Ala....PRONOUNCED: sah-LAHM.

PRO CAREER STATS: QB sacks: 8 (2-1976, 4-1977, 2-1978). Opp. fumbles recovered: 2 (1-1977, 1-1978). Games played: 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (15).

KEN Schroy

S 6-2 191

Maryland

FA, 1976 26 (9/22/52) 3

PRO: "Ken is a good utility football player," Michaels said. "He's a versatile athlete who is one of the best special teams players on the squad."...played in every game for the second straight year...started twice at free safety for injured Burgess Owens vs. Pittsburgh and at New England...finished second on the club among special teams leaders...recovered onside kick to set up TD at Cleveland...recovered fumble vs. Steelers...returned three punts for 35 yards, including a 30-yarder vs. Patriots at Shea...took lateral from Bruce Harper and raced 26 yards with kickoff vs. Cowboys...made 48 tackles (21 solos)...has good size and speed...originally drafted in 10th round by Philadelphia in 1975 but was released as injuries hampered his progress...signed as free agent with Jets in 1976 but missed entire season with fractured ankle...started two games at strong safety in 1977 when he was fifth on the squad in special teams stats.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter for Maryland...returned 10 interceptions for 165 yards in his career...also ran back punts and kickoffs...averaged 38.3 yards punting as a soph...played with Jet teammate Bob Raba...member of ACC championship team in 1974...played in Peach and Liberty bowls.

PERSONAL: Has degree in recreation...scored 27 TDs and had 2,399 yards rushing at Quakertown High in his hometown of Qua-kertown, Pa....gained 240 yards in one game...set school records in long and triple jumps...participated in Punt, Pass & Kick program...lives year-round in Pt. Lookout on Long Island...birthplace: Valley Forge, Pa.

PRO CAREER STATS: Punt returns: 6, 73 yards, 12.2 avg., 30 LG, 0 TD (3-38-12.7-17-0 in 1977, 3-35-11.7-30-0 in 1978). Opp. fumbles recovered: 2 (1-1977, 1-1978). Games played: 1976 (injured), 1977 (14), 1978 (16).

MICKEY Shuler

TE 6-3 229

Penn State

D 3, 1978 23 (8/21/56) 2

PRO: "Mickey has outstanding potential," Michaels said. "He's a great blocker who did a good job last year in short-yardage situations. He's got good hands and adequate speed."...played in all 16 games as a rookie and started once vs. Browns...caught 11 passes for 67 yards, 6.1 avg., 15 LG (at New England), 3 TDs...his first two receptions of the season both were TDs vs. Miami and at Baltimore...other TD was at Cleveland...best effort was three catches at Miami...played mostly on double-tight end alignments...combined with tackle Chris Ward to form very effective combination...their blocking was one of the main reasons the Jets improved their third down efficiency from 34.1 per cent in 1977 to 43.9 last year...finished eighth among special teams leaders.

COLLEGE: "We've had some fine tight ends at Penn State, but nobody has done as well consistently as Mickey, both blocking and catching," said Joe Paterno....was second team All-America and first team All-East (both AP) as a senior...finished career as school's fourth leading receiver with 66 catches for 1,016 yards, 16.9 avg....led Nittany Lions in receiving as a junior (21-281-12.9-3 TD) and senior (33-600-18.1-1)...three-year letterman...won Red Worrell Award in 1976 for attitude, loyalty and improvement...played in Senior, Japan and Hula bowls as well as Cotton, Sugar, Gator and Fiesta bowls.

PERSONAL: Wife Sue...daughter Nicole was born last February...majored in health and physical education...took courses at Penn State in off-season...father Bob was high school football coach but retired just before Mickey was eligible to play for him...football, basketball and track captain at East Pennsboro (Pa.) High...birthplace: Harrisburg, Pa....hometown: Enola, Pa....PRONOUNCED: SHOE-lur.

Mickey Shuler is a rugged, durable competitor. At Denver he left the field with a possibly broken wrist (it wasn't). While the doctor was putting on the cast, the Jets took the opening kickoff of the second half and drove for a TD. As the team lined up for the PAT, there were only 10 men on the field because Shuler was supposed to be the 11th. A replacement was about to run on the field when Shuler burst through the locker room door directly behind the goal post. With his cast still wet, he ran right onto the field to his spot and blocked for the successful conversion.

BRUCE Stephens

WR-KR 5-9 170
Columbia
FA, 1978 22 (10/31/56) 2

PRO: One of three rookie free agents to make Jets' opening day roster last year...appeared in six of first seven games on special teams...did not play at Washington because of knee injury... played in next three games but was bothered by injury... was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 18...ran back three kickoffs for 42 yards...his 68-yard kickoff return vs. Seattle was nullified by a holding penalty...one of the fastest men on the squad (4.5 in 40)...worked hard on rehabilitation and should be ready to go this season.

COLLEGE: MVP for Columbia as a senior...second team All-Ivy in 1976 and 1977...rushed for 1,141 yards in career...threw 48-yard TD pass to beat Penn as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single...earned B.A. in economics...ran on high school national record-setting 880 relay team with Olympian Harvey Glance...birthplace: Columbus, Ga....hometown: Phenix City, Ala.

SHAFER Suggs

SS 6-1 200
Ball State
D 2, 1976 26 (4/28/53) 4

PRO: "Shafer gave us a healthy season and led the team in tackles," Michaels said. "He has excellent speed and is one of our hardest tacklers. He learned a lot last year and should continue to progress at strong safety."...enjoyed his first injury-free season in 1978...led Jets with 161 tackles (79 solos) and had a career high of three interceptions...started every game at strong safety...one of the best all-around athletes on the squad...his 32-yard interception return late in the game preserved the Jets' 21-20 win at Buffalo...picked off pass by Bob Griese at Miami and ran it back 29 yards...had an interception and QB sack at Denver...played one of his best games vs. New England at Shea when he completely shut off Russ Francis and contributed 13 tackles, his season high...recovered a fumble and made 12 tackles at Washington...started just eight games in 1977 when his progress was hampered by a series of injuries, beginning with a shoulder separation he suffered in a car accident en route to training camp...found a home at strong safety in his second season after starting nine games at left cornerback as a rookie when injuries also forced him to miss action.

COLLEGE: Named Mid-American Conference defensive player of the year as a senior...AP second team All-America...first Ball State player in 17 years to earn four football letters...stood out in East-West and Senior Bowl games...set school career interception record with 14, including eight in 1975...three-year basketball starter...played in last College All-Star Game in Chicago...kicked nine straight FGs as sophomore and junior.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in history...lives year-round in Westbury on Long Island...all-state football and basketball stand-out at Central High in his birthplace and hometown of Elkhart, Ind.

PRO CAREER STATS: Interceptions: 4, 73 yards, 18.3 avg., 32 LG, 0 TD (1-12 in 1976, 3-61-20.3-32-0 in 1978). Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1978. QB sacks: 1 in 1978. Games played: 1976 (11), 1977 (9), 1978 (16).

ED Taylor

CB 6-0 175
Memphis State
D 9, 1975 26 (5/13/53) 5

PRO: "Ed had an improved year," Michaels said. "He doesn't make very many mental mistakes and has good speed."...started every game at right cornerback for the second straight season...a steady performer...had two interceptions (Pittsburgh, Cleveland) and contributed 65 tackles (38 solos)...earned a game ball in pre-season win vs. Giants when he made a diving deflection of a pass in the end zone on the last series to save Jets' 27-23 win...led team in passes defended in 1977 and 1976...became a regular in his second season when he started 11 games at RCB...was chosen Jets' rookie of the year by New York writers in 1975...started five games at SS, three at FS and one at RCB.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter...played in Blue-Gray Game and American Bowl...had eight interceptions in career...outstanding track man...set Memphis State 440 record (47.2 seconds)...member of NCAA championship 440 relay team...selected track All-America.

PERSONAL: Wife Ava...daughter Audrey 2...has degree in secondary education...was a substitute teacher in Memphis during off-season...brother Cliff was RB for Green Bay in 1976...birthplace and hometown: Memphis, Tenn.

PRO CAREER STATS: Interceptions: 5, 22 yards, 4.4 avg., 11 LG, 0 TD (2-22-11.0-11-0 in 1976, 1-0 in 1977, 2-0 in 1978). Kickoff returns (all in 1975): 7-151-21.6-36-0. Opp. fumbles recovered: 2 in 1975. Games played: 1975 (14), 1976 (11), 1977 (14), 1978 (16).

RICHARD Todd

QB 6-2 200
Alabama
D 1, 1976 25 (11/19/53) 4

PRO: "Richard's improvement from the 1977 season was tremendous until he got hurt," Michaels said. "Both Richard and Matt Robinson are capable of being starters and winners in the NFL. His performance against Miami in the opener (17 of 25, 245 yards, 3 TDs) was as good a game as anyone can play. He showed that he's capable of competing with any quarterback in the league. Richard reads coverages well and does a good job picking out secondary receivers. He has exceptional potential."...started 1978 spectacularly, leading Jets to wins vs. Miami and Buffalo with three TD passes in each game...threw for 220 yards in loss to Seattle...suffered broken left collarbone following week at Washington when he was sacked on first play of fourth period...ranked fourth in AFC passing ratings after fourth week with 53 of 94, 797 yards, 6 TDs, 7 int....was sidelined next seven weeks...returned to start vs. New England at Shea but reinjured collarbone at end of third period when he was tackled on a QB draw...was placed on injured reserve two days later (Nov. 21)...

despite playing in just five games, completed 60 of 107 for 849 yards, 6 TDs, 10 int....his 56.1 completion pct. was a big improvement over his career mark of 46.4 entering the season...won Pentax Jets' player of the week award for his effort vs. Miami...had elective surgery in January to remove a benign growth on his right shoulder...problem dated from his high school days...has been given a clean bill of health and will be ready for 1979...already ranks fourth on Jets in career passing yardage (3,582)...one of Michaels' first decisions as head coach in 1977 was to name Todd his No. 1 QB...progressed rapidly in his second season until suffering a sprained right knee in eighth game vs. Miami...was fourth in AFC in passing and had guided Jets to No. 1 in passing in the conference...missed next two games and returned following week in fourth period...started final three games but never regained pre-injury form...in first eight games, Todd completed 100 of 181 (55.2), 1,449 yards, 8 TDs and 8 int...after injury was 33-84-414-3-9...had best passing day in NFL in 1977 and sixth best in Jets' history when he threw for 396 yards (4 TDs) vs. Oakland...one TD went 87 yards to Wesley Walker which tied third longest pass ever for Jets...started six games and was QB of record in two of Jets' three wins as a rookie when he competed against his boyhood idol, Joe Namath...was hurt by fact he signed late and missed first three weeks of training camp...was sixth player chosen in first round of draft.

COLLEGE: Named All-SEC by AP and UPI as a senior...honorable mention All-America...selected MVP by teammates...led Alabama to three straight SEC titles...MVP in 1975 Sugar Bowl...also played in Sugar Bowl as sophomore and Orange Bowl as junior...completed 101 of 189, 1,642 yards, 16 TDs in career...rushed for 1,254 yards on 304 carries (4.1 avg.), 16 TDs...MVP in Senior Bowl, passing for 332 yards and two TDs as dropback passer after running wishbone attack for Crimson Tide...picked for Chicago College All-Star Game but did not participate.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in physical education...spent off-season selling real estate in Birmingham, Ala....was color commentator on national television for Senior Bowl last January...did public service TV message for United Way last season...biggest thrill in college was playing for Bear Bryant...enjoys scuba diving and fishing...mother Mary Ann has a master's degree and teaches nursing...father Carl has a doctorate and is associate dean of education at University of South Alabama...three-sport standout at Davidson High in his hometown of Mobile, Ala....birthplace: Birmingham, Ala.

STAN Waldemore

T-G 6-4 257
Nebraska
FA, 1978 24 (2/20/55) 2

PRO: Signed with Jets as free agent on Oct. 10...was active for 10 games and played in four as a special teamer...has speed to play guard as well as tackle...originally third round pick of Atlanta last year...survived final cut but was waived two days before opening game...very strong...can bench press 450 pounds.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Nebraska...played on Big Eight title team as a sophomore...selected for East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl...redshirted in 1974 when he switched from defensive to offensive tackle...was a teammate of Jets' linebacker Bob Martin.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in construction management...an avid weightlifter...All-America at Essex Catholic High in his birthplace of Newark, N.J....also a shot put standout...hometown: Belleville, N.J.

WESLEY Walker

WR 6-0 179
California
D 2, 1977 24 (5/26/55) 3

PRO: "What can I say about Wesley that hasn't been said?" Michaels remarked. "He's the biggest deep threat to come into the league in a long time. He can run and catch passes outside, inside and over the middle. What makes him special is that he had to overcome a lot of things. (He's legally blind in his left eye.) I put him in a class with Don Maynard, Ray Renfro and other great receivers. Wesley is an unselfish, team player. He doesn't go around saying, 'Hey, throw me the ball.' He just asks what he can do for you to win. His potential is unlimited."...a starter for the AFC in the Pro Bowl last season, the first Jet since 1975 to be selected...chosen All-NFL by Pro Football Writers of America, AP, NEA, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly, N.Y. Daily News, N.Y. Post and Newark Star-Ledger...picked All-AFC by UPI and MVP by his teammates...led the NFL in yards gained receiving (1,169), the most in the league since Warren Wells had 1,260 in 1969 and the sixth best season in Jets' history...had 48 receptions, the most by a Jet wide receiver since 1968...his 24.4 avg. per catch led the NFL...also paced league as a rookie with 21.1 avg....had an amazing 52.0 avg. on eight TDs (77, 75, 56, 48, 47, 43, 38, 33)...six of them were thrown by Matt Robinson...47 and 43-yarder were from Richard Todd in opener vs. Miami when Walker caught four for 108 yards...was only NFL receiver to have four games over 100 yards in 1978...best effort was 154 at Baltimore (77-yard TD)...earned game ball when he had 133 at Denver, including dramatic 75-yard TD in fourth quarter that provided winning margin in 31-28 triumph...his six catches (126 yards, 33-yard TD) at Miami tied Kevin Long for the most receptions by a Jet last year...received game ball for his two

TD catches (48 and 38) vs. Colts at Shea when Jets held 10th reunion of Super Bowl III team...after the game Don Maynard said, "I watched him today and saw myself. I actually played the part. I was striding right along with Walker. Well, maybe I was a little behind him. Well, maybe I was a lot behind him."...received Pentax Jets' player of the week award for his 56-yard TD vs. Patriots at Shea that put Jets ahead in fourth period...has started and caught at least one pass in every game (30) the past two seasons...named to every NFL all-rookie team in 1977...his 35 receptions were the most ever by a Jets' rookie wide receiver until Derrick Gaffney broke the mark with 38 last year...helped Gaffney get open by drawing so much double coverage...his 740 yards receiving ranked 11th in the NFL in 1977...had four catches for a career-high 178 yards vs. Oakland, including an 87-yard TD from Todd that tied the third longest pass play in Jets' history...already ranks eighth among Jets' career leaders in receiving yardage (1,909)...runs 40 in 4.35 seconds.

COLLEGE: Rated 10th best player in country at any position by Jets' scouts, who were very surprised that he was still available in second round...probably was not drafted higher because he underwent knee surgery after the seventh game of his senior year...Jets' trainer Bob Reese examined him before draft and gave him clean bill of health...holds NCAA record for average gain per reception in a career (25.7)...in four years caught passes from Vince Ferragamo, Steve Bartkowski and the late Joe Roth...also returned kickoffs in first three seasons...had 86 receptions for school record 2,206 yards and tied Pac-8 record with 22 TD catches...set conference record with 289 yards receiving vs. San Jose State...his 88-yard TD reception vs. Georgia in 1976 was the longest in California history...ranked second to Chuck Muncie in career all-purpose yardage for Golden Bears...outstanding in track as sprinter and part of relay team...was Cal's first four-year double sport letterman since pre-World War II...was a teammate of Jets' fullback Tom Newton.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in economics...spent off-season taking courses at California...appeared on TV quiz show "Sports Challenge" with Matt Robinson and Walt Michaels last February...was highly praised for his work as chairman of the Athletes vs. Multiple Sclerosis program in Long Island high schools last season...is legally blind in left eye because of cataract he's had since birth..."It's really nothing," Walker says. "I've been playing sports with it all my life. I kept it pretty much a secret through high school and college. When I was 14 I was supposed to have surgery to remove the cataract, but the doctors decided it wouldn't have helped. I do have good peripheral vision. When I close my good eye I can still get around the house with my bad one open. It's just that I can't read the eye charts with it. When I was a kid I used to memorize the big letters."...was Los Angeles 100-yard and 220 champion and member of two LA championship football teams at Carson High in his hometown of Carson, Calif....played defensive back as well as wide receiver...was a football player before becoming a track man...birthplace: San Bernardino, Calif.

People see Wesley on Sunday afternoons, but they can't watch him on film day after day and see the things he can do and how every day he's improving. There's really no limit to what he can do. He's got it all — moves, speed, acceleration and brains. And he opens up the whole offense. Double-cover him and you've got other guys going one-on-one. So with the ball or without it, he can kill you. — Matt Robinson

Wesley Walker can change the complexion of a game faster than anyone in football. — Pro Football Weekly (from a poll of NFL personnel directors and scouts).

CHRIS Ward

T 6-3 269

Ohio State

D 1, 1978 23 (12/16/55) 2

PRO: "Chris has the temperament and ability to become a great tackle," Michaels said. "He has a tremendous desire to excel and become all-pro. His pass blocking began to improve, and there was no question about his run blocking. Chris and Marvin Powell's friendly rivalry made each of them better. They're the kind of tackles who can say, 'Here we come,' and still block you anyway."...selected to the NFL all-rookie first team by the Pro Football Writers of America, UPI, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest...started every game at left tackle and was one of the reasons that the Jets set a club season rushing record...played very well against some the toughest defensive linemen in the league...limited Harvey Martin to one tackle and one sack in last game vs. Cowboys...also did outstanding job against Lyle Alzado in second half at Denver...when asked the top tackles he faced all year, Alzado said, "Art Shell, Jon Kolb and that kid from the Jets, Ward. He really impressed me."...an overpowering blocker, particularly on running plays...improved his pass blocking greatly during the season...has very quick feet and good balance...fourth player chosen in first round of draft...when Ward was drafted, Walt Michaels said, "I see Chris as a modern edition of Jim Parker, and I wouldn't say that about many people. With Marvin Powell (No. 1 pick in 1977) at right tackle, we've got two bookends for the next 10 years."...runs 40 in 4.9.

COLLEGE: "Chris has the finest work habits of any player I've coached at Ohio State," said Woody Hayes...consensus first team All-America in 1976 and 1977 and first team All-Big Ten for three straight seasons...named Offensive Lineman of the Year by Downtown Athletic Club during Heisman Trophy ceremonies...four-year letterman, three-year starter...played 1,049 minutes in 44 games, more than any player in Ohio State history...played in Rose Bowl twice plus Orange, Sugar and Hula bowls...earned three varsity letters for Buckeye track squad as discus and shot put specialist.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in finance...an honor student throughout college...took courses during off-season at Ohio State...very articulate...went to Patterson Cooperative High in his hometown of Dayton...set Ohio high school discus record...was junior high teammate of Jets' Jim Earley...active in charitable activities...birthplace: Cleveland.

"Ward's feisty and he's going to be good one day....I like his attitude...He's one of the finest young tackles in the league."

MARK Gastineau

DE-DT 6-5 253
East Central (Okla.)
D 2, 1979 22 (11/20/56)

COLLEGE: "We saw enough of Mark at the Senior Bowl (Jets' staff coached the North squad) to know he's a good football player on the rise," Michaels said. "He can play outside or inside. I like big people who can run and are competitive. Both Marty Lyons and Mark fit these criteria. Mark has the heart of an Arabian horse, and he'll break it before he quits."...gained attention of pro scouts with his performance in the Senior Bowl when he was selected the North's outstanding defensive lineman (Jets' first round pick Marty Lyons earned the same honor for the South)...

was a last-minute replacement for Mike Stensrud of Iowa State in the game...was first player from his school ever selected for Senior Bowl..."Mark is one of the best physical specimens to come out of the draft in a long time as far as size, speed and strength," said personnel director Mike Hickey. "It's hard to find a player of his height and weight who can run a 4.7 for 40 yards. He gives us flexibility with the size and strength to be a defensive tackle and the speed and quickness to be a defensive end. He has the raw talent and hasn't really scratched his potential,"...first player ever drafted from East Central in Ada, Okla....teammate Clifford Thrift was later drafted in third round by San Diego...Atlanta's Dewey McClain, also from East Central, was a free agent in 1976...originally played at Eastern Arizona JC in 1975 and Arizona State in 1976 before transferring...had 27 QB sacks in two seasons for East Central...made 107 tackles (26 solos) as a senior...selected all-conference, NAIA All-District Nine and honorable mention NAIA All-America last year...earned two letters in track as shot put (conference champ and school record holder) and discus specialist.

1979 JETS TENTATIVE ITINERARY AND HOTEL HEADQUARTERS

NOTE: All New York Jets' flights are via Eastern Airlines charters. They all will depart from LaGuardia's main or shuttle terminal (check with PR department week before game) except for the first trip to Chicago, which will leave from Kennedy Airport. The team will depart on all flights the day before the game. The team will return to New York the night of the game. The bus will depart from the stadium to the airport not later than one hour after the game. The night before regular season home games the Jets will be headquartered on Long Island at the Holiday Inn in Westbury, N.Y. (516-997-5000).

1978 JETS GAME-BY-GAME

(Attendance figures are turnstile counts)

Sept. 3, AT JETS 33, MIAMI 20 (49,598)—Hazy and warm. Opening at home for the first time since 1964 when they inaugurated Shea Stadium to football, the Jets defeated the Dolphins, 33-20. Coach Walt Michaels' team (probably the youngest in the history of the NFL with an average age of 24 and average NFL experience of 1.6 years) scored on seven of its 10 possessions with Richard Todd tossing three touchdowns, two to WR Wesley Walker and one to TE Mickey Shuler. Pat Leahy added four field goals. Todd sent the Jets in front on their first possession with a 47-yard pass to Walker, and Leahy kicked a 36-yard field goal about a minute later following a Mike Hennigan interception of Don Strock, who was playing for injured Bob Griese. An interception by Greg Buttle set up another Leahy FG that gave New York a 13-0 lead. After Delvin Williams twisted and raced 58 yards for a TD, the Jets answered back immediately with Todd completing a one-yard pass to Shuler to climax a 59-yard drive. The Jets took over the driver's seat for good at the beginning of the half when Todd and Walker hooked up again on a 43-yard TD pass. "We not only got whipped," said Don Shula. "I never even felt we were in the game." "We played the type of football game I like—sound," said Michaels. Todd passed for 245 yards and spread 17 completions of his 25 attempts to seven different players. Walker began his race for NFL receiving honors with four for 108 yards.

Sept. 10, JETS 21, AT BUFFALO 20 (40,985)—Cloudy. "With a little bit of luck" could have been the Jets' theme song as they scored with 50 seconds remaining to defeat Buffalo, 21-20, and increased their record to 2-0. With Richard Todd having an erratic day, the Jets got some help from lady luck. For example—Jerome Barkum's first TD catch came off the hands of a Bills' defender, Tom Dempsey missed the PAT to leave it 14-13 in favor the the Jets and Wesley Walker bobbled a catch in the winning TD drive, but the ball fell into his lap as he hit the turf. The Jets did make several clutch plays, especially in the winning drive; and the defense played with intensity except during Buffalo's 92-yard TD march. Todd wasn't as on target as he was against Miami, but he did complete three touchdown passes for the second straight week. He hit the winner to Barkum at the end of an 11-play, 77-yard drive and was 14-26 for 171 yards with two interceptions. Rookie WR Derrick Gaffney, taking advantage of Wesley Walker's double coverage, received the "game ball" for his 5-108 performance. DE Joe Klecko harrassed the Bills with one nine-yard sack, an eight-yard loss on a QB keeper and drew five holding penalties—totaling a minus 67 yards. Joe Ferguson kept the Bills in the game with 20 of 32 for 222 yards and two TDs. Kevin Long led the Jets "nobodies" backfield with 74 yards on 14 carries.

Sept. 17, SEATTLE 24, AT JETS 17 (46,911)—Sunny and warm. Jets' mistakes, offensively and defensively, and an inability to stop Seattle on third down led to the New Yorker's first loss of the season, 24-17. The Jets set a club record for penalties with 14. They lost one TD via a penalty and nullified their last drive with another. Richard Todd was intercepted twice in scoring situations, once at the Seattle 13 and again at the Seahawks' 22. QB Jim Zorn completed 19 of 26 passes for 191 yards and RB Dave Sims scored three touchdowns, the last coming after Zorn converted a fake field goal into a first down at the Jets' two. NY opened the scoring with a 65-yard drive on the initial kickoff. The teams traded touchdowns and field goals until Sims' final tally at 4:40 of the fourth quarter. "They took advantage of opportunities and we didn't. You've got to give 'em credit," said Walt Michaels. The Jets' head coach was disappointed in his young team's inability to stop Seattle on third down—the Seahawks converted 10 of 14 tries. Kevin Long gained 80 yards, Clark Gaines had 56 and two TDs and Scott Dierking added 40 as the club netted 177 yards rushing. "It's a shame we wasted such a great effort by Long," said Michaels. Todd completed 13 of 24 for 220 yards.

Sept. 24, AT WASHINGTON 23, JETS 3 (54,729)—Cloudy and cool. The Jets not only lost to Washington, 23-3, they also lost starting QB Richard Todd for seven weeks with a broken left collarbone. New York took a 3-0 lead the first time it had the ball via Pat Leahy's 31-yard FG. On the next series the Jets missed another big opportunity when they recovered a punt that hit a Washington receiver on the four, but a penalty nullified the effort. The Redskins, behind the passing of Joe Theismann, picked their way to a 13-3 halftime lead and then generated a second half offense and pass rush that put the game away. "Very simple," said Walt Michaels, "it was an old fashioned a—kicking. We played well in the first half and then they whipped us in the second half." Theismann wound up 21-30 for 209 yards and two TDs. Ex-Jet John Riggins (21-114) and Mike Thomas (17-57) led the Redskins' ground attack which netted 256 yards. Before injuring his shoulder on the first play of the fourth quarter when sacked by Karl Lorch and Dave Butz, Todd completed 9 of 19 for 136 yards. Joe Klecko recorded 2½ sacks and continued his streak of producing at least one sack in each of his 10 NFL starts.

Oct. 1, PITTSBURGH 28, AT JETS 17 (52,058)—Clearing. "You can't look back, but I think we grew up a lot today," said Walt Michaels after the Jets bowed, 28-17, to the Pittsburgh Steelers, who showed why they were on their way to another Super Bowl championship. "We didn't get in when we were down close (NY failed to get any points after being on Pitt's one and eight-yard lines in the first and fourth quarters), but considering the circumstances Matt Robinson had a tremendous game." Robinson, the second year QB who took over as the starter for the sidelined Richard Todd, completed only 9 of 22, but passed for 192 yards and didn't have a turnover until the game was out of reach with two minutes remaining. Terry Bradshaw displayed his all-pro credentials with three TD passes, two to Lynn Swann and one to John Stallworth as Pittsburgh moved to a 5-0 mark. Bradshaw completed 17 of 25 for 189 yards and Swann grabbed seven passes for 100 yards. The Steel Curtain recorded five sacks and held the Jets' rushing game in check in the second half. The New Yorkers rushed for 155 yards, 140 in the first half. Jet defensive stalwarts Greg Buttle and Burgess Owens missed the game with injuries.

Oct. 8, AT JETS 45, BUFFALO 14 (44,545)—Sunny and cool. "If somebody had told me before the game we would score 45 points, I would have told them they were crazy," said a bubbling Walt Michaels, who saw his Jets whip Buffalo, 45-14, with a team record 35-point first half. New York broke open a 14-7 game with 21 points in the second quarter. Larry Keller (a Buffalo nemesis) blocked a punt, which led to a score; then on the ensuing kickoff the Jets recovered a fumble and followed that with a touchdown. Then with less than two minutes remaining, Bruce Harper raced 82 yards with the second longest punt return in New York history for another tally. Kevin Long did most of the damage, tying a club record with three TDs while gaining 91 yards on 13 carries. "The biggest thing I saw in there was Long and Scott Dierking," said Michaels. "Every time I looked they were moving the ball and breaking tackles." (Dierking complemented Long with 50 yards as NY rushed for 231 yards.) The Jets' secondary picked off two Joe Ferguson passes, including a 40-yard TD return by Burgess Owens. Matt Robinson threw only nine times but completed four, including a touchdown to Derrick Gaffney. At the half, the Jets had 35 points and minus three yards net passing.

Oct. 15, JETS 33, AT BALTIMORE 10 (45,563)—Sunny, clear and cool. The Jets produced their biggest offensive attack of the season with 403 yards, and the defense crippled the Colts with five turnovers to break through the three-victory barrier for the first time since 1974 with a 33-10 win. Making his third straight start, Matt Robinson passed for 215 yards, completing 8-13 and hooking up with Wesley Walker for a game-breaking 77-yard touchdown. Despite being ill, Kevin Long rushed to the best day of his career (26-136), and the running game produced its second straight 200-yard plus day with 204 yards. The defense picked off three Baltimore passes, two leading to touchdowns. The Colts' Bert Jones made his first start of the regular season but was knocked out of action (reinjured shoulder) in the first period when blitzed by Bob Martin. Pat Leahy kicked four field goals and scored 15 points for the day. Greg Buttle was a defensive standout with 12 solo tackles, two assists, one interception and one sack. Chuck Ramsey booted the longest punt, 79 yards, in the NFL since 1969.

Oct. 22, AT JETS 23, ST. LOUIS 10 (49,244)—Sunny and mild. Ignited by Greg Buttle's knockdown and recovery of a lateral, the Jets broke the game open in the third quarter with 13 points and went on to defeat St. Louis, 23-10, to record their third straight victory. Pat Leahy's 38-yard FG followed Buttle's big play and less than two minutes later New York scored another TD, this one set up by Bruce Harper's 31-yard punt return and Matt Robinson's 22-yard pass to Derrick Gaffney. Scott Dierking, who produced his second best day in the pros with 94 yards on 23 carries, added the insurance touchdown on a 10-yard burst, his second tally of the game. Leahy, who had his original NFL tryout with the Cardinals, added his third FG, 45-yarder on the last play of the third quarter. The Jets increased their record to 5-3 while St. Louis remained winless under new head coach Bud Wilkinson. On the Monday before the game (Oct. 16), a Polish Cardinal was elected Pope, but it proved to be more of an omen for the Jets than the Cardinals who were without the services of regular QB Jim Hart and gave Polish quarterback Steve Pisarkiewicz his first NFL start. The Jets' Polish head coach Walt Michaels celebrated his 49th birthday on the day the Pope was elected.

Oct. 29, AT NEW ENGLAND 55, JETS 21 (60,585)—Sunny. For the first time since 1972, the Jets were involved in a game in the second half of the season that had a bearing on first place. By the end of the Jets' longest afternoon of the year, New England had broken three club records (points - 55, TDs - 8, total net yards - 529) en route to its sixth straight win, 55-21. New York's hopes of taking over the top spot in the AFC East were quickly dashed when the Patriots took a 21-0 lead in the first 12 minutes of the game. The hosts scored the first seven times they had the ball to take a 41-7 lead at intermission, tying the most points ever scored against the Jets in one half. Reserve QB Pat Ryan guided the Jets to a pair of scoring drives in the fourth period with Tom Newton running for both TDs. Bruce Harper set two Jets' records with eight kickoff returns for 180 yards. Patriots' QB Steve Grogan had one of the best days of his career, completing 15 of 19 for 281 yards and four TDs. The Jets lost ace linebacker Greg Buttle for the season with a sprained knee.

Nov. 5, JETS 31, AT DENVER 28 (74,983)—Partly cloudy and cool. After losing 55-21 at New England a week earlier, the Jets appeared to be on the verge of another humiliating rout when Denver took a 28-7 lead in the second quarter. But coach Walt Michaels' young squad grew up in a hurry by scoring the next 24 points to stun the defending AFC champions, 31-28, in the most miraculous comeback of the 1978 NFL season and one of the greatest turnarounds in Jets' history. The winning TD came on a perfect 75-yard TD strike from Matt Robinson to Wesley Walker with 5:45 to go in the final quarter. The Broncos had a chance to send the game into overtime with eight seconds remaining, but former Jet Jim Turner was short on a 42-yard FG try. The Jets' offense contributed to all of Denver's points with a misplayed punt, a fumble and two interceptions, snapping Robinson's streak of 70 straight passes without a theft. The Jets erupted for 17 points in the second period and then completely dominated the second half by gaining 231 yards, 130 of them on the ground, against the vaunted Orange Crush defense. When the Jets regained possession with 3:17 left in the game, Michaels installed a one-back offense that produced three first downs and used up 2:10 on the clock. Kevin Long carried seven straight times for 54 yards during the drive. It was only the third defeat for the Broncos at Mile High Stadium since 1975 (Oakland won the other two), and it also was the Jets' first victory over Denver since 1967, ending a five-game losing skid in the series. New York's 403 yards in total offense tied its season high, and the 31 points were the most against the Broncos since 1976.

Nov. 12, AT PHILADELPHIA 17, JETS 9 (60,249)—Overcast and windy. The Jets turned the ball over four times and managed just 248 yards in total offense as Philadelphia took a 17-9 verdict. An interception by the Eagles' Randy Logan set up a field goal in the third period that provided the margin of victory. Reggie Wilkes' recovery of Bruce Harper's fumble on the Jet 43 midway through the fourth period set up the Eagles' final TD drive. Harold Carmichael (6-8) leaped over rookie cornerback Bobby Jackson, who's just 5-9, to snare a six-yard scoring pass from Ron Jaworski. Carmichael, who caught an 18-yard TD earlier, also blocked Pat Leahy's PAT attempt in the third period that would have tied the score at 10. It was Leahy's only missed conversion of the season.

Nov. 19, NEW ENGLAND 19, AT JETS 17 (55,568)—Partly cloudy and mild. Playing before the largest crowd of the season at Shea Stadium, the Jets suffered one of their most discouraging setbacks of 1978 when Pat Leahy's 33-yard FG attempt with 31 seconds remaining hooked just to the left and the Patriots escaped with a 19-17 victory. At the beginning of the day, Richard Todd had two reasons to celebrate. It was his birthday, and he was making his first start after missing seven games with a broken left collarbone. But he showed the effects of the long layoff by throwing three interceptions; and on the last play of the third quarter with the score tied at 10, he reinjured his collarbone on a QB draw and was lost for the season. The Patriots moved in front, 16-10; but Jets rallied behind Matt Robinson, who completed 7 of 10 for 121 yards in the final stanza, including a 56-yard TD bomb to Wesley Walker that put New York ahead, 17-16. But New England drove 71 yards, aided by a controversial personal foul call on Burgess Owens, as Dave Posey's 24-yard FG provided the winning points. Owens set up the Jets' first TD by returning an interception 49 yards to the Patriots' one-yard line on the third play of the game. Patriots' QB Steve Grogan, who had thrown for 281 yards and four TDs against the Jets three weeks earlier, was held to 99 yards. New England's defense limited New York to its lowest rushing total (69 yards) of the season.

Nov. 26, JETS 24, AT MIAMI 13 (49,255)—Sunny and mild. Just as they did at Denver two weeks earlier, the Jets once again showed their ability to come back with an outstanding performance after a disheartening defeat the week before. New York put together its best overall effort of the season to beat Miami, 24-13, and sweep the season series for the first time since 1969. It was the Jets' first victory in the Orange Bowl since 1971. The Jets' defense completely frustrated Bob Griese, limiting him to just 112 yards passing, picking off three interceptions and sacking him twice. Griese was lifted for Don Strock in the fourth quarter, marking the first time since 1970 that he had been benched for ineffectiveness, not injury, in a game that counted. Matt Robinson led the Jets' attack by completing 17 of 26 for 257 yards, including a 33-yard TD pass to Wesley Walker in the fourth quarter that clinched the victory. Trailing 6-3 at halftime, the Jets took the lead for good in the third period with an 80-yard drive that culminated in Darnell Powell's three-yard run, the first TD of his career that gave New York a 10-6 advantage. The key play in the game came on the next series when Bob Martin picked off Griese's pass and returned it 26 yards to the Dolphin three to set up Kevin Long's one-yard TD plunge. The Jets held Miami to 256 yards in total offense, which was their second best defensive effort of the year.

Dec. 3, AT JETS 24, BALTIMORE 16 (50,248)—Overcast and cold. With most of the members of the Super Bowl III championship team watching from the stands, the Jets kept their playoff hopes alive with a 24-16 win over the Colts that gave New York a sweep of the season series for the first time since 1973. The Jets held a 10th reunion for the 1968 squad, and they were treated to a good show both at the banquet on Saturday night and during the game on Sunday. The Jets' defense came through with its best performance of 1978, holding the Colts to 244 yards in total offense and recording a season-high five QB sacks. The combination of Matt Robinson and Wesley Walker clicked for two TDs, the third game in a row that they had paired together for at least one scoring pass. Abdul Salaam's fumble recovery on the Colt 16 set up the Jets' first score. Baltimore took the lead late in the second period, but Robinson put New York on top for good on a 48-yard TD pass to Walker with a minute left in the first half. Walker's catch pushed him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season, making him the first Jet to accomplish that feat since Don Maynard and George Sauer (both were at the game) each did it in 1968. The Jets' defensive line put tremendous pressure on QB Bill Troup late in the game to prevent the Colts from rallying. Kevin Long rushed for 107 yards, the second time in 1978 that he passed the 100-yard mark vs. the Colts.

Dec. 10, AT CLEVELAND 37, NEW YORK 34 overtime (36,881)—Snow, windy and very cold. It took 15 games, three minutes and seven seconds before the Jets finally were eliminated from playoff contention. Don Cockroft's 22-yard field goal in overtime put the pin in New York's bubble and gave Cleveland a 37-34 victory. The Browns seemed to have the outcome clinched with a 27-10 lead at the end of the third quarter; but as it was all year, the Jets refused to give up. Behind the arm of Matt Robinson, who had the most productive day of his career, and the opportunistic play of the special teams, the Jets rallied for 24 points in less than 10 minutes in the fourth quarter to take a 34-27 advantage. Robinson tossed two TD passes to Mickey Shuler and Bruce Harper to bring the Jets to within three points. Ken Schroy recovered an onside kick, and Pat Leahy booted a 39-yard FG to tie it with 2:36 remaining. On the next kickoff, Tim Moresco jarred the ball loose from Keith Wright, and Darnell Powell scooted 23 yards with it to the Browns' eight. Three plays later, Kevin Long went over from the one to give New York the lead for the first time in the game with 1:16 to go. But the Jets' defense, which yielded 519 yards in total offense, could not hold the Browns as Brian Sipe drove his team 73 yards in six plays and hit Calvin Hill with the tying TD pass with 14 seconds remaining. The man who hurt the Jets the most all day was Greg Pruitt, who rushed for 138 yards (the most against New York in 1978), caught six passes for 69 yards and returned the opening kickoff of the overtime 31 yards to set up Cockroft's FG. Robinson completed 22 of 44 for 289 yards, three TDs and four interceptions (all career highs). Harper had one of his best days of the year with 245 yards in all-purpose yardage.

Dec. 17, DALLAS 30, AT JETS 7 (52,532)—Clear and cold. With gusts as high as 50 miles per hour creating mini-tornadoes at the closed end of Shea Stadium, the defending Super Bowl champion Cowboys held the Jets to their lowest offensive output of the season (137 total yards) en route to a 30-7 victory. Tony Dorsett was the offensive hero for Dallas with 121 yards rushing and five receptions for 27 yards. He made the pivotal play of the game late in the third quarter when he scooped up Billy Joe DuPree's fumble and raced 54 yards for his second TD of the day that gave the Cowboys a commanding 23-0 bulge. QB Roger Staubach sat out the contest with a bruised throwing hand, but backup Danny White was just as effective despite the wind with 15 of 24 for 156 yards, one TD and no interceptions. The Dallas defense picked off three interceptions and sacked Matt Robinson five times. Kevin Long's 40 yards rushing gave him the second highest season total (954) in Jets' history.

RULES FOR FREE RE-ACTIVATIONS FROM INJURED RESERVE

Each club shall have during a season (including postseason) a maximum of three free re-activations from injured reserve which may be used only on players who were placed on reserve after the final cutdown of that year. In order for a club to use a free re-activation on any player injured in the preseason, such player must count on the active list at the final cutdown and be placed on injured reserve thereafter. Free re-activations may be used only on players who meet the four-week minimum requirements from the date of going on injured reserve during the regular season or from the date the injury occurred in preseason. The four-week minimum means that a player's injury renders him physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks.

NEW QB—Wismer signs Lee Grosscup just before opening game. He directed a 27-17 victory over Oakland (Sept. 9).

FINANCIAL TROUBLE—Wismer unable to meet his payroll and the AFL assumed the costs of running the club until the end of the season (Nov. 8).

ATTENDANCE—Team drew only 36,161 for seven home games, finished last at 5-9.

NEW OWNERSHIP—A five-man syndicate composed of David A. (Sonny) Werblin, Townsend B. Martin, Leon Hess, Donald C. Lillis and Philip H. Iselin purchased the New York franchise for $1-million (March 28).

EWBANK CHOSEN & TITANS TO JETS—Weeb Ewbank, who had been released by Baltimore, was named head coach of the team. On the same day the new owners changed the name from Titans to Jets (April 15).

ASSISTANT COACHES—Ewbank designated Clive Rush, Walt Michaels, J.D. Donaldson and Chuck Knox as his assistant coaches. George Sauer, Sr., retained as head talent scout.

TRAINING CAMP—Jets move to Peekskill, N.Y., for their first training camp.

QB TROUBLES—Still needing a quarterback and the opening day less than a week away, Ewbank picked up Dick Wood as a free agent.

OPENING GAME—Boston upended Jets 38-14 in the opener at Boston College (Sept. 8).

FIRST VICTORY—Jets won first game under new ownership as they defeated Houston 24-17 at the Polo Grounds in the home opener. Marshall Starks set AFL record with 97-yard TD return of a missed field goal (Sept. 22).

CANCELLED GAMES—AFL calls off games on day of national mourning for President John F. Kennedy (Nov. 24).

SNELL DRAFTED—The Jets made Matt Snell, RB, Ohio State, their number one draft choice. Snell also drafted by the Giants. Snell became the first number one to sign with the N.Y. team. Also signing were Dave Herman and Mike Taliaferro, both drafted by Jets and Giants, and high draft choices Gerry Philbin and Ralph Baker.

SHUTOUT—Jets record first shutout in their history, a 17-0 blanking of Kansas City at the Polo Grounds (Dec. 1).

THE SEASON—The Jets finished last (5-8-1) but were successful at the box office, drawing 103,550 for seven games.

1964

TRADE—Jets and Denver complete historic nine-player deal. Jets sent Dick Guesman, Ed Cooke, Charlie Janerett, Jim Price and Sid Fournet to Denver for Gene Prebola, Wahoo McDaniel, Gordy Holz and Bob Zeman (January).

TV PACT—AFL and NBC announced a five-year television contract calling for $36,000,000 starting with the 1965 season (Jan. 29).

NEW HOME—Jets moved into Shea Stadium, beating Denver 30-6, before an AFL record crowd of 45,665. Jets' Gene Heeter scored the first Shea TD (Sept. 12).

SNELL RECORD—Matt Snell rushes for 180 yards, a club record, as Jets topple Houston 24-21 at Shea (Oct. 17).

FIRST SELLOUT—60,300 sat in at Shea to see Buffalo stop the Jets 20-7 (Nov. 8).

TRADE RIGHTS—Jets trade rights to Jerry Rhome to Houston in return for a number one draft choice.

NAMATH DRAFTED—Using their pick gained from Houston, the Jets drafted Alabama QB Joe Namath.

SNELL HONORED—Matt Snell was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year. Snell gained 948 yards on 215 carries and caught 56 passes (Dec. 17).

1965

NAMATH SIGNS—The day after the Orange Bowl game, Joe Namath signed a Jets' contract reported to be worth $427,000 (Jan. 2).

HUARTE SIGNS—Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte of Notre Dame signed a Jets' contract estimated to be worth $200,000, giving the Jets over one-half million dollars worth of QB talent within a week (Jan. 9).

NAMATH OPERATION—Twenty-three days after signing, Joe Namath entered Lenox Hill Hospital to undergo an operation for cartilage and ligament damage in his right knee (Jan. 25).

ROOKIE GAME—Joe Namath plays in his first professional game as the Jets' rookies beat the Patriot rookies at Lowell, Mass. (July 28).

FIRST APPEARANCE—After sitting on the bench for the opener, Namath entered the second quarter vs. Kansas City (Sept. 18).

FIRST START—Joe Namath starts his first game (third of the year for Jets) and throws 19 for 40 for 287 yards and 2 TDs, but Jets lose 33-21 to Bills (Sept. 26).

FIRST WIN—After going 0-5-1, the Jets stopped Denver 45-10 at Shea (Oct. 31).

DRAFT FOR 1966—Jets draft Bill Yearby, Carl McAdams, Emerson Boozer and Pete Lammons.

NAMATH HONORED—Joe Namath was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year. Namath completed 164 of 340 for 2,220 yards with 18 TDs and only 15 interceptions.

1966

AFL-NFL MERGER—Representatives of the AFL and NFL agreed to merge and play a world championship game following the 1966 season. Pete Rozelle named commissioner of both leagues (June 8).

WIDEST MARGIN—Jets open home season, beating Houston 52-13. The 52 points and margin of 39 set records for the Jets (Sept. 18).

SPOILERS—Jets close season at Shea, whipping the Patriots 38-28 to knock Boston out of the Eastern Division title (Dec. 17).

NAMATH UNDER KNIFE—Ten days after the close of the season, Joe Namath entered the hospital for a tendon transfer and cartilage removal in his right knee (Dec. 28).

1967

SUPER BOWL—In the first Super Bowl at Los Angeles, Green Bay beats Kansas City 35-10 for the first world crown (Jan. 15).

AFL-NFL DRAFT—Jets tab Paul Seiler as their first choice in the first combined AFL and NFL draft. Jets rotated, drafting 12, 13 and 11 (March 14).

BUFFALO JINX—Ignoring a 17-0 deficit, Buffalo stormed back in the second half to defeat the Jets 20-17 in the season opener. Matt Snell and Cornell Gordon sidelined with knee injuries (Sept. 10).

A TIE—Joe Namath and Don Maynard tackled Larry Carwell at the four-yard line after time was over to preserve a 28-28 tie with Houston. Had the Jets won, they would have been well in front for the Eastern Division title.

BOOZER HURT—The other member of the Jet backfield, Emerson Boozer, was lost to the team with torn ligaments in his knee in a loss to Kansas City. Boozer was on his way to a pro TD record with 10 rushing and 3 receiving at the time (Nov. 5).

WINNING CAMPAIGN—Jets beat Boston 29-24 to clinch their first winning season in history (Nov. 19).

ELUSIVE TITLE—Jets lost to Oakland 38-29 on the West Coast and saw their chances for a title evaporate. Houston beat Miami the next Saturday to clinch the crown (Dec. 24).

RECORD PERFORMANCE—Joe Namath passes for 343 yards to finish season with 4,007 yards, the only pro to go over the 4,000-yard mark in a year (Dec. 24).

ATTENDANCE—Jets set AFL attendance record with 437,036 for seven games. All home games were sold out.

1968

EXPANSION DRAFT—Solomon Brannan, Jim Waskiewicz, Pete Perreault and John Matlock go to help stock the fledgling Cincinnati Bengals.

NAMATH OPERATION—Joe Namath enters the hospital and his left knee is operated on for repair of small tear in the tendon (March 20).

WERBLIN LEAVES—Jet partners Don Lillis, Leon Hess, Townsend Martin and Phil Iselin bought out Sonny Werblin for a reported $1.6 million and Lillis assumed the presidency (May 21).

TRAINING CAMP—Jets relocate their camp at Hofstra University in Hempstead, L.I.

ANOTHER LEADERSHIP CHANGE—On July 23 Don Lillis passed away, leaving the Jets without a president. Shortly afterwards, Philip Iselin was appointed president and Mrs. Helen Springborn, Lillis' daughter, joined the board of directors (Aug. 6).

SEASON OPENER—Namath controls the ball for the final 5:56 of the game as the Jets defeat Kansas City 20-19 in the opener (Sept. 15).

HOME OPENER—Jets come home after three road games and defeat San Diego 23-20 on Boozar's last minute touchdown. An AFL record crowd of 63,786 sat in (Oct. 5).

STORYBOOK TALE—"Heidi" became a part of the nation's sporting vocabulary when decisive last few minutes of key Jet-Oakland game were cut off the air to permit children's special to begin on time. Raiders scored twice in last 42 seconds to win, 43-32 (Nov. 17).

NINTH VICTORY—Jets set a club record with their ninth win, 35-17 over Miami. Previous high was eight in 1967 (Dec. 1).

ALL-PROS—Joe Namath, George Sauer and Gerry Philbin named to the combined AFL-NFL all-pro team. Thirteen Jets named to the AFL all-star squad.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME—Joe Namath engineers late rally to defeat Oakland 27-23 for the Jets' first AFL title before 62,627 at Shea Stadium. Two passes to Don Maynard late in the game gave the Jets the victory (Dec. 29).

1969

SUPER BOWL III—Jets become the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl, pounding out a 16-7 victory over the Baltimore Colts at Miami's Orange Bowl. Weeb Ewbank becomes first coach to win world title in both leagues. Namath chosen Super Bowl MVP (Jan. 12).

NAMATH HONORS—Joe Namath reaped a harvest of awards. AFL MVP, Hickok Belt winner, George Halas Award as the Most Courageous Pro Player, Pro Player of the Year.

COACHING SHUFFLE—Clive Rush, chief assistant to Weeb Ewbank, leaves the Jets to become head coach of the Boston Patriots (Jan. 30).

FRONT OFFICE RE-ALIGNMENT—George Sauer, head talent scout, leaves to become Boston's general manager (Feb. 11).

RE-ALIGNMENT—Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh join the AFL clubs to complete the merger of the two leagues. Jets placed in Eastern Division with Baltimore, Boston, Buffalo and Miami (May 17).

MONDAY TV—ABC signs a four-year contract for a series of Monday night TV games. First time regularly scheduled sports events would be seen in prime time (May 26).

NAMATH RETIRES—Joe Namath announces his retirement from pro football in dispute over his ownership of Manhattan night spot Bachelors III (June 6).

TRAINING CAMP—Jets reports to Hofstra without Joe Namath (July 8).

RETIREMENT ENDED—Joe Namath announces sale of Bachelors III and comes out of retirement (July 18).

ALL-STAR GAME—Jets defeat College All-Stars 26-24, becoming the first AFL team to play in the Chicago classic (Aug. 1).

CROSSTOWN RIVALS—Jets beat Giants 37-14 in first meeting between the two New York teams. Namath throws three TD passes and Mike Battle returns a punt 86 yards for a score (Aug. 17).

JINX BROKEN—Jets defeat Buffalo 33-19 to record their first victory at Buffalo since becoming Jets. Weeb Ewbank gets his 100th victory as a head coach (Sept. 14).

WINNING STREAK—Jets defeat Buffalo 16-6 to extend their winning streak to six, a club record (Nov. 9).

RECORD CROWD—The third record crowd of the year at Shea, 63,865, sets AFL mark as Oakland upends the Jets 27-14 (Nov. 30).

SECOND DIVISION CROWN—Jets defeat Houston 34-26 in Houston to win their second Eastern Division title (Dec. 6).

PLAYOFF GAME—Kansas City takes its first step toward the Super Bowl crown by beating New York 13-6 in the interdivisional AFL playoffs (Dec. 20).

ALL-PRO—Joe Namath voted the all-pro (NFL-AFL) quarterback by league coaches for the second year in a row. Joining him on all-pro squads were Winston Hill and Matt Snell (Dec. 22).

ALL-TIME AFL TEAM—Weeb Ewbank named the all-time coach of the AFL and Joe Namath, Don Maynard and Gerry Philbin chosen to the all-time AFL team selected by the Hall of Fame.

1970

PLAYERS STRIKE—NFL Players Association strikes pro football camps, leaving the Jets with only rookies as full training camp was supposed to open (July 19).

STRIKE SETTLED—Veterans report to camp after missing three weeks due to the strike (Aug. 3).

OPENER—Jets open up the 1970 season against new AFC rival, Cleveland, losing 31-21 in Monday night TV inaugural (Sept. 21).

SNELL LOST—The Buffalo jinx claimed not only the game with the familiar fourth-quarter comeback, but also Matt Snell, who was lost for the season with a ruptured Achilles tendon (Oct. 4).

BLACKOUT LIFTED—The Jets agreed to lift the TV blackout of the New York area for the Jets-Giants game (October).

NAMATH EXITS—In the first meeting between the Colts and Jets since 1969 Super Bowl, Joe Namath fractured his right wrist and was sidelined for the year (Oct. 18).

NEW YORK RIVALS—The Jets and Giants met in the first regular season game between the two intracity squads. The Giants came back in the second half for a 22-10 win before a Shea Stadium record crowd of 63,903 (Nov. 1).

UPSETS—Behind Al Woodall's quarterbacking and the top AFC defense, the Jets upset the powerful Rams and Vikings within a three-week span, toppling two of the NFC's leading contenders (Nov. 15, Nov. 29).

SAUER RETIRES—The Jets' all-pro wide receiver, George Sauer, a five-year veteran, announced his retirement from football (April 16).

BIGGS DEPARTS—Weeb Ewbank had a player exercise his option for the first time ever as Verlon Biggs, DE, signed with Washington. The Redskins sent two draft choices as compensation (June 10).

NAMATH HURT—For the second time in as many seasons, Joe Namath was forced out of the lineup. This time he was hurt in first preseason game trying to make a tackle on a fumble runback and underwent surgery on his left knee immediately (Aug. 7).

OPENER—Al Woodall opens the season in place of injured Joe Namath, but the Jets suffer their first shutout since 1963 at the hands of Baltimore 20-0 (Sept. 19).

NAMATH RETURNS—Joe Namath, on the sidelines for 19 straight games, made his return in the second quarter against San Francisco and tossed for 358 yards and three TD passes as the Jets barely fell to the 49ers, 24-21 (Nov. 28).

ATTENDANCE RECORD—Jets close out with a 35-21 win over Cincinnati and set a one-season home attendance mark of 441,099 (Dec. 19).

NAMATH SIGNS—Joe Namath signed a two-year contract for a reported $250,000, becoming the highest paid player in the game (Aug. 1).

NAMATH SPARKLES—Joe Namath had his finest day as a pro, throwing for 496 yards and six touchdowns as the Jets defeated Baltimore 44-34. Namath and John Unitas set an NFL combined record for passing yardage—872 (Sept. 24).

RUSHING MARK—Jets set club rushing record of 333 yards as team defeated Patriots 41-13. John Riggins (168 yards) and Emerson Boozer (150) became first tandem in history to hit the 150-yard mark in a game (Oct. 15).

MAYNARD MARK—Don Maynard became pro football's all-time receiving leader with his 632nd career catch. The historic grab came in the fourth quarter at Oakland. Namath passed for 403 yards, but Jets were eliminated from race (Dec. 11).

WINNER HIRED—Charley Winner, former head coach of St. Louis, is named to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the Jets, starting with the 1974 season. Winner serves as an assistant coach under Ewbank for 1973 (Feb. 1).

JETS EVICTED FROM HOME—Due to World Series games, the Jets were forced to play their first six games on the road, including moving the Pittsburgh game to Three Rivers Stadium. This left the Jets with only six games for the home fans (Oct. 21).

CONTROVERSIAL LOSS—Joe Namath returned to action after seven weeks and nearly directed a win over Cincinnati, but two controversial calls by the officials denied the Jets and the game ended on the Bengals' one-yard line (Nov. 18).

EWBANK-O.J.—Weeb Ewbank's last game after 11 years as Jets' head coach, but Buffalo's O.J. Simpson provided the fireworks as the Jets finished out at 4-10. Simpson broke the NFL season rushing mark with a 200-yard afternoon and wound up with 2003 for the year (Dec. 16).

1974

PLAYER STRIKE—Jets open training camp with 31 rookies and one veteran as the NFLPA strike begins (July 9).

FREE AGENT SIGNINGS—Jets hold open tryout day and sign 19 free agents to add depth to the training camp squad (July 10).

PRESEASON OPENS—Playing with a team composed mainly of rookies, the Jets defeated Denver 41-19 in the opening preseason game. John Jones was at QB (Aug. 3).

TRAINING CENTER—Jets took occupancy of their new training center in Hempstead, N.Y. The center contains coaches' offices, players' quarters and full practice facilities (Sept. 3).

NEW HAVEN VICTORY—After going 1-7 over the first part of the year, the Jets snapped their slump with a tingling 26-20 overtime victory over the Giants at Yale Bowl. Joe Namath threw six yards to Emerson Boozer for the winning points (Nov. 10).

EWBANK RESIGNS AS VP—Weeb Ewbank announces that he will retire as vice president of the Jets at the end of the season (Nov. 12).

VICTORY BINGE—Jets close out the season with six consecutive victories to provide a 7-7 season. Included in the streak were upsets over playoff-bound Miami and Buffalo and contender New England.

1975

DRAFT—Jets traded their number one pick for DE Billy Newsome of New Orleans (Jan. 28).

GENERAL MANAGER NAMED—Al Ward, vice president of the Dallas Cowboys, was named Jets' general manager to succeed Weeb Ewbank who had retired (Feb. 13).

NAMATH SIGNS—Joe Namath turned down a reported multi-million dollar WFL contract to sign a two-year contract with Jets (July 30).

GAME STRUCK—The final preseason game between the Jets and New England Patriots was canceled when the Patriots' players went on strike (Sept. 14).

JETS STRIKE—The New York Jets' players voted to support the New England players' strike and walked out of camp the week of the opener against Buffalo (Sept. 16).

PLAYERS RETURN—Jets' players returned to camp as strike was settled (Sept. 18).

EMPEROR HIROHITO—His Majesty, Emperor Hirohito of Japan, attends home opener and watches Jets defeat Patriots 36-7 (Oct. 5).

WINNER FIRED—Charley Winner was dismissed as head coach after the Jets lost six games in a row and were in the AFC East cellar with a 2-7 record. Ken Shipp, the offensive coordinator, was named interim head coach (Nov. 19).

RIGGINS 1,000 YARDS—John Riggins became the first Jet in history to gain 1,000 yards as he reached 1,005 vs. Dallas in season finale (Dec. 21).

1976

HOLTZ NAMED COACH—Lou Holtz, who had a successful four years at North Carolina State, was named head coach. He signed a five-year contract (Feb. 10).

DRAFT—Jets tab another Alabama quarterback as their number one pick, selecting Richard Todd (April 8).

ISELIN CARDIAC ARREST—Jets' president Phil Iselin suffered a cardiac arrest while attending the Jets-Broncos game at Denver (Sept. 19).

HOLTZ RESIGNS—Lou Holtz, deciding that he wasn't right for the pros, resigns with one game to go and soon returns to college coaching job. Mike Holovak was named interim coach for final game (Dec. 9).

NAMATH LAST GAME—Joe Namath started what was to be his final game as a Jet against Cincinnati (Dec. 12).

ISELIN DIES—Phil Iselin, who led the Jets for eight years, suffered a fatal heart attack while at his office (Dec. 28).

1977

MICHAELS HEAD COACH—Veteran defensive coach Walt Michaels was named head coach, signing a three-year contract. Leon Hess was named acting president. (Jan. 5)

PLAYER AGREEMENT—The NFL and the NFL Players Association agreed on a contract for the first time in three years. The contract extends five years and contains a modified draft. (March 1).

NAMATH WAIVED—Joe Namath, symbol of the Jets for 12 years, was granted his freedom as he was placed on waivers when a special trade attempt with Los Angeles was unsuccessful (April 1, became final April 12).

DRAFT—Marvin Powell, offensive tackle from Southern California, was Jets' first pick (May 3).

NAMATH SIGNS WITH RAMS—Joe Namath signs with the Los Angeles Rams as a free agent (May 12).

JETS WIN EARLY ACCESS TO SHEA—After a two-month court struggle, the Jets were guaranteed two September games in Shea Stadium, one on either the first or second date of the NFL season, plus two games in October. The agreement was for each of the remaining six years of the Jets' lease with the city, beginning in 1978. State Supreme Court Justice Harold Baer also allowed the Jets to play two preseason games plus their 1977 home opener at Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands (May 26).

KENSIL NAMED PRESIDENT—Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL since 1968, was named president and chief operating officer of the Jets. Leon Hess, who had served as acting president, became chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters (June 6).

TODD HAS BEST PASSING DAY IN NFL—Second-year quarterback Richard Todd came through with the best passing performance in the NFL in 1977, throwing for 396 yards and four TDs in a 28-27 loss to the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders at Shea (Oct. 23).

WARD RESIGNS—Al Ward, Jets' general manager since 1975, resigned (Dec. 30). He became assistant to the president of the AFC (April, 1978).

1978

EWBANK NAMED TO HALL OF FAME—Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets from 1963-73 and was the only coach to win world championships in both the NFL and AFL, was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Joining Ewbank were Larry Wilson, Ray Nitschke, Tuffy Leemans and Lance Alworth, the first player from the AFL to be enshrined (Jan. 23).

NAMATH RETIRES—Joe Namath announced his retirement from pro football (Jan. 25).

JETS CHANGE LOGO AND UNIFORM—For the first time since 1963, the Jets changed their uniform design. The team also adopted a new logo and changed the helmet to green (Feb. 27).

DRAFT—For the second straight year, the Jets picked an offensive tackle in the first round—Chris Ward of Ohio State (May 2).

MICHAELS' CONTRACT EXTENDED—Coach Walt Michaels' pact was extended during the week before the Jets' opener (Sept. 1).

JETS WIN FIRST DEBUT SINCE 1972—Opening the season at home for the first time since 1964, the Jets upset Miami, 33-20, behind Richard Todd's three TD passes. It was the first Jets' opening-day win in seven years (Sept. 3).

JETS OVERCOME BRONCOS IN DENVER—In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the history of the franchise, the Jets fought back from a 28-7 deficit in the first half to defeat the defending AFC champion Broncos, 31-28, before 74,983 fans at Mile High Stadium. Matt Robinson's 75-yard TD pass to Wesley Walker provided the winning margin in the last quarter (Nov. 5).

WALKER SELECTED TO PRO BOWL—Wide receiver Wesley Walker became the first Jet since 1975 to be chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl (Dec. 14).

JETS FINISH WITH MOST WINS SINCE 1969—The Jets closed with an 8-8 record, the most wins by the club in 10 years and the best record since 1974 (Dec. 17).

MICHAELS PICKED COACH OF THE YEAR—Walt Michaels, who kept the youngest team in the NFL in playoff contention for 15 games, was named AFC Coach of the Year by UPI and the Pro Football Writers of America. He was chosen NFL Coach of the Year by several publications.

JETS SIGN WITH WCBS—The Jets and WCBS Newsradio 88 agreed to a five-year contract. WCBS replaced WOR, which had broadcast Jets' games for the previous eight seasons (Jan. 2).

DRAFT—Marty Lyons, All-America defensive lineman from Alabama, was Jets' first round pick (May 3).

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 29, 1968 — SHEA STADIUM

NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (two to Don Maynard, one to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who threw for 401 yards. Its running attack was blunted by the Jets' league-leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection by the Jets' line was superb.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

AFL PLAYOFF

DEC. 20, 1969 — SHEA STADIUM

KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

For the second year in a row, the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969, the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

WEEB EWBank — A HALL OF FAMER

Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets for more than a decade, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1977.

The former Jets' and Colts' (1954-62) head coach achieved a distinction that will never be matched — the only coach to win world championships in both leagues.

The Colts were dismal losers when Weeb took over in 1954. He built them up to the NFL champions in 1958 when they beat the Giants in a memorable sudden death overtime and they won the title again in 1959. Weeb joined the Jets in 1963 and developed them to the team that shocked the Colts in Super Bowl III.

Weeb joined impressive company. Paul Brown, George Halas and Vince Lombardi are the only coaches in the Hall of Fame who were contemporaries of Weeb during his head coaching career.

WCBS RADIO & JETS—A NEW TEAM

The Jets have signed a five-year, exclusive contract to have all of their games broadcast by WCBS Newsradio 88.

There will be a three-man crew featuring veteran WCBS sportscaster Spencer Ross on play-by-play, former Jets' offensive captain Sam DeLuca doing the color and WCBS sports director Ed Ingles handling the pre-game and post-game shows.

WCBS, the leading news station in New York, plans extensive coverage of the Jets with a 40-minute pre-game program that will feature the Walt Michaels' Show, an NFL update, a scouting report on the day's opponent and a last-minute update on the Jets. All of the pre-game reports will be interspersed with helicopter traffic information about the Shea Stadium vicinity.

Following the first half, the announcers will give an analysis and then return to their studio for a news update.

The post-game wrapup will feature highlights, analysis and final statistics plus a live report and interviews from the locker room followed by an NFL scoreboard show.
